TRANSPORT FLEET IS RIDLED TONG DUEL CAUSES DEATH

Austria Suspected of Desperate Attack on Servian Troopships

Two Vessels Set Afire; Number of Casualties Is Not Reported

CETINJE, Montenegro, March 13.—News reached here today that four Servian transports loaded with troops were yesterday riddled with shells fired by an unidentified war vessel. Accounts of the engagement from two different sources declare that the attacking vessel flew the Austro-Hungarian flag.

The transports were conveying strong detachments of Servian troops to assist the Montenegrins in their siege of the fortress of Scutari. The attack on the four boats occurred off San Giovanni Di Medua. Two of the transports were set on fire. The number of killed and injured has not been reported.

TAKEN TO INFIRMARY.

The wounded man was taken to the county infirmary in an automobile by Manager Duncan of the San Lorenzo hotel, and Virgil Bonham of Lodi. The injured man's condition is not serious, although the bullet is still in his arm. He was taken directly to the sheriff's office at once and Under Sheriff J. J. Hanifin Jr. and Deputy Sheriffs Joseph Soares, Bert Brown and Guy Smith hurried to the scene in an automobile. They are investigating the causes which led to the shooting.

Armed with automatic revolvers loaded with poisonous brass coated bullets, two Chinese gunmen, believed to be members of the Bing Kong Tong, entered a lodging house at Fifth and Harrison streets last night and fired eleven shots through the panels of a redwood door with the evident intent of murdering the occupant. Ng Sung, who lodges at the place, was wounded in the right leg, and due to the fact that the brass coated bullets were used, it is possible that blood poisoning may set in and the wound prove dangerous.

The two gunmen were apparently familiar with the room and the manner in which it was furnished, as their shots were fired so as to riddle the bed standing in a corner diagonally across the room from the door with bullet holes. It was on the fact that Sung, who had been asleep in the bed, heard the whispered conversation of the gunmen outside and left his bed that saved his life.

WOUNDED MAN HIDDEN.

The shooting occurred shortly before midnight, but the police were not told. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

Auto Plunges 70 Feet; One Killed; Four Hurt

OXNARD, March 13.—Plunging over a 70-foot embankment which started as a merry auto party of five Oxnard residents ended in death to one, probably fatal injuries to three and serious hurts to the fifth. The accident occurred near Santa Paula, about 16 miles from Oxnard, at an early hour this morning. The automobile was driven by Theodore Henderson, who had as his guests Wilson Cummings, the latter's two sisters, Olga and Jeanette Cummings, and Genevieve Carle. Miss Carle is the only occupant of the car who has regained consciousness, while Miss Olga Cummings was killed outright and Henderson may die from internal injuries. Miss Carle regained her senses in the darkness of the early hour, and, although suffering from three broken ribs, summoned aid from a ranch house.

Destructive Suffragette Weapons Found Cached

LONDON, March 13.—An extensive storehouse of destructive instruments used by the militant suffragettes in their attacks on private and public property was unearthed today by Scotland Yard detectives. Armed with a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Olive Hogen, who is charged with attempting to burn the buildings of the auto-

Roehampton Golf Club, the detectives searched an artist's studio in Camden Hill Garden. Under the flooring of the studio there was a telegraph wire cutting apparatus, several boxes of corrosive fluid for use in breaking windows and false identification plates for automobiles.

Mme. Bernhardt Better;
Will Play Again Tonight

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—The actress, who was painfully injured in an automobile accident between this city and Venice last night, her auto driving with a heavy motor truck, showed marked improvement during the night and it was stated by her physician that she would be able to take part in a benefit performance today.

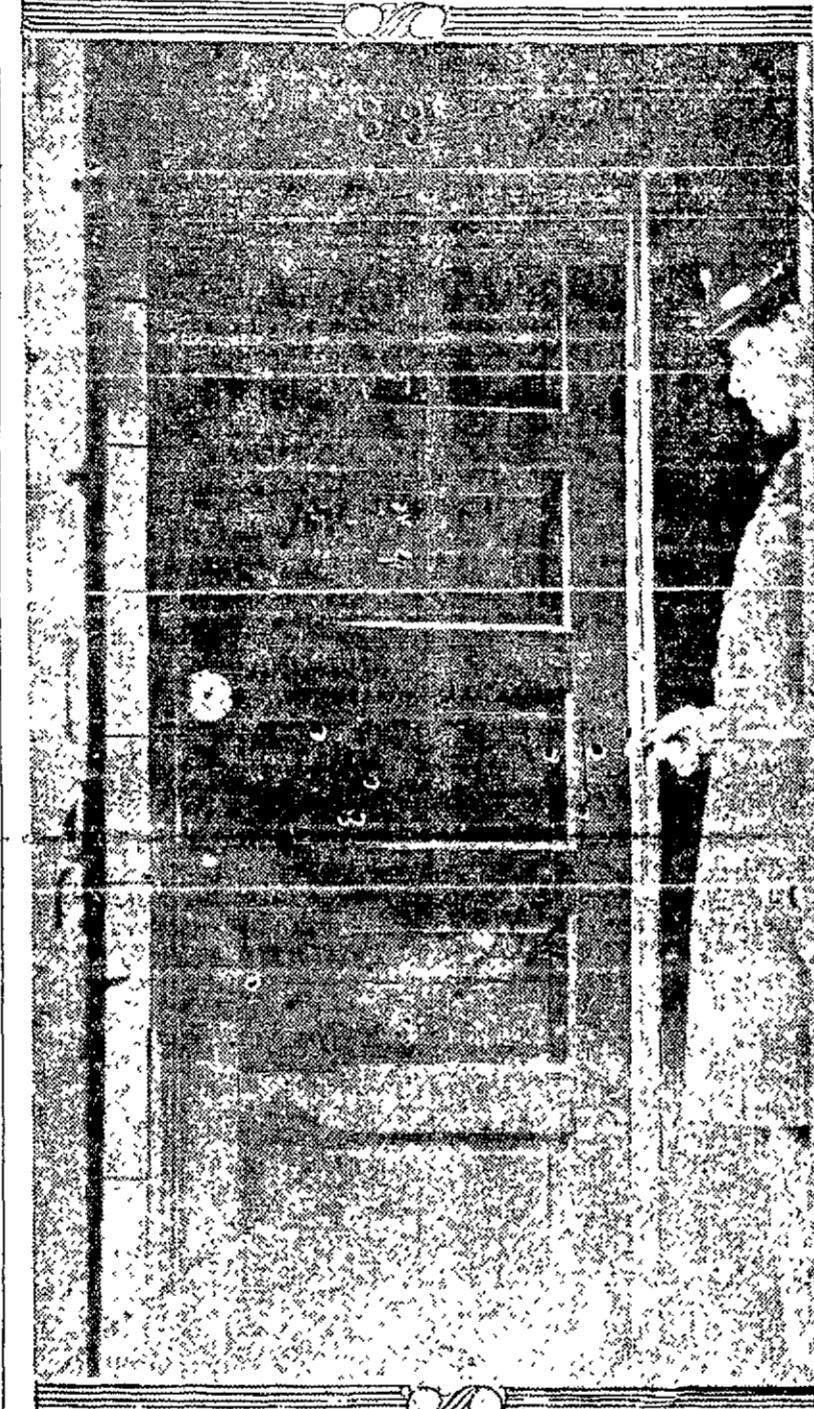

Although both her ankles were badly wrenched and her hip lacerated, Mme. Bernhardt was able to go through her performance at a local vaudeville theater last night. Apparently she has entirely recovered from the shock.

ELOPERS' NAMES FRIEDMANN AND ON REGISTER AT RENO?

Son of Caminetti and Companions Leave
in Hurry

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—At the Riverside hotel of Reno yesterday were found the names of four persons believed by the police of this city to be those of F. Drew Caminetti, son of Senator Caminetti; Mauri L. Dings and their young women companions, Lola Norris and Martin Williamson, with whom they are supposed to have eloped last Sunday night, and for all of whom warrants for arrest have been issued. The four were registered at the Riverside as Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Wright. They are known to have inquired for rates from Reno to Salt Lake City and to Denver, and subsequently disappeared from Reno. It is believed by the police that they left by automobile for Rochester, the new Nevada mining camp.

The news of the double elopement has stirred political and social circles of the state capital, where all four of the young people are prominent. Yesterday the parents of the girls appeared before Judge J. W. Hughes of the Juvenile Court and secured warrants for the arrest of all four.

The elopement took place Sunday evening, when Caminetti and the young women were last seen together in a downtown restaurant about 11 o'clock Sunday night. Caminetti was seen alone an hour later at Seventh and K streets.

Warrington charges Diggs with contributing to the dependency of a minor child, his 5-year-old daughter Evelyn, who is with her mother. Norris accuses Caminetti of contributing to the effects of an injury to the skull.

HOSPITALS LOBBY AT CAPITAL

Proposed 8-Hour Law Amendment Vigorously Opposed by Oaklanders

State University Regents Confer With Governor on Need of Appropriation

(Special Correspondence of THE TRIBUNE.)

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—The hospitals of Oakland, through a strong delegation started a lobbying campaign yesterday at the state capital against the inclusion of the employees of hospitals in the proposed amendments to the eight-hour law for women, which is intended to place practically every occupation in which women are employed under the eight-hour work day. The delegation is composed of Mrs. Catherine Chabot Dillane, a director of Fabiola hospital; Miss Mary E. Johnson, superintendent of Fabiola hospital training school for nurses; Miss Gertrude Courtright, superintendent of East Bay hospital.

In addition to representing the hospitals of Oakland these women carry credentials from hospitals in various sections of the State that have also joined in the concerted fight the women say is to be waged against the measure.

The delegation spent the greater part of the day interviewing members of the Alameda county delegation and in explaining the effects the bill would have on hospitals it was to be enacted into law.

FEAR EFFECT ON SYSTEM.

Under present conditions nurses work in twelve-hour shifts, which will be necessary means that patients will be cared for by alternating nurses.

Should the proposed amendment to the law carry it will necessitate changing nurses three times during each twenty-four hours and the argument is advanced that this will tend to impair the rigid system maintained for the care of patients.

The feature of the proposed law placing the nurses training schools within its jurisdiction is being particularly attacked on the ground that it would practically make a training school impossible because of the fact that it is necessary at times to call upon candidate nurses at any time during the day or night.

It is expected that the arguments

It's All Very Well In the Summertime

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The next to nature theories of Mrs. Charles Schmidt, a middle-aged woman of 1755 Forty-ninth avenue, were badly shaken this morning when her dip in the ocean sans clothing was rudely disturbed by Patrolmen Harvey and Leonhardt.

Mrs. Schmidt was attired like Eve when the officers, passing by, paused horrified. They were not the only ones in the vicinity, but they were the only ones horrified. They promptly took Mrs. Schmidt into custody and charged her with a misdemeanor offense.

She declared that in order to live to a good old age the pores of the skin should be properly opened and this could not be done if a bathing suit were worn while riding the breakers on the edge of the broad Pacific.

Man Falls Eight Feet With Fatal Result

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—A fall of only 8 feet resulted fatally today for Edmund Welch, a cooper of 221 Prentiss street. Welch was at work in the yard of the Milwaukee Brewing Company and was standing on top of a hogshead, when he fell to the ground. He was removed to his home, where he succumbed to the effects of an injury to the skull.

APPLIES FOR PATENT.

The public health service procured today reasonable verification of the report that Dr. Friedmann, as far back as last July, applied to this government for a patent on his remedy. Though such applications are in the secret archives of the patent office, information relating to Dr. Friedmann's intention is said to have come through a foreign source.

No patent, however, has been issued. It was pointed out also that no commercial firm could introduce any such vaccine into the country without the approval of the public RHEIMS, France, March 13.—Two sergeants of the army aviation corps were fatally injured today in a collision between two machines in mid-air. The accident occurred in the course of maneuvers by a "flock" of five aeroplanes.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Charges that Carl A. Loefler, acting assistant doorkeeper of the Senate, had been responsible for the disappearance of the Hollislaw certificate of deposit presented during the Lorimer trial in the Senate and which was never afterward located, was made in the Senate today by Senator Gore of Oklahoma, when Loefler's re-election was proposed. The senator said his informant was a page of the Senate who had delivered the certificate to Loefler after securing it from Senator Bailey.

MANY SHOTS FALL ON AMERICAN SIDE OF BOUNDARY LINE

Firing Begins at Daybreak From Three Directions; Sonora
Troops Use Grenades

U. S. Soldiers Unlimber Machine Guns on Position Commanding Battlefield; Forbidden to Return Fire

NOGALES, Ariz., March 13.—Encouraged by federal defeats at interior towns and the bloodless victory yesterday in taking the port of Agua Prieta, 1000 Sonora state troops at daybreak today attacked Nogales, Sonora, opposite this border town and customs port.

With promise of reinforcements from General Ojeda's 500 federals, making a forced march from the eastward border town, the 250 men of the Nogales federal garrison made a determined defense against the onslaught of the Constitutionalist force.

Bullets showered into the Arizona town, which is divided from the Mexican town by a business street. Up to noon one Mexican citizen had been wounded on the Arizona side and bullet entered the homes of Americans in Nogales, Ariz.

U. S. TROOPS ON BORDER.

United States troops rushed from Fort Huachuca were spread along the international line, keeping back the curious. The first charge of the insurgent troops was repelled with a loss from 15 to 20, declared the federal, while the garrison defenders early in the day lost at least 17 killed and 11 wounded.

Colonel Kostorlitzky sent for Dr. U. S. T. Gustetter to care for the wounded. Seventy-four Chinamen under guard from the Immigration office, have been removed to the American side for safety.

At 8:30 o'clock Dr. Gustetter, who had crossed the international line to attend the wounded, reported that 17 of the defenders had been killed and 11 hurt. At this time the firing became scattering and was mostly centered upon the left flank.

UNLIMBER MACHINE GUNS.

The United States troops patrolling the border unlimered two machine guns on Tucson Hill, commanding the two towns.

At the outbreak of the battle Captain C. C. Smith, in charge of the British United States cavalry patrol, deployed his men along the border and sent word to Fort Huachuca. The warning, however, had been anticipated and before daybreak a train bearing three additional troops of cavalry and a machine gun platoon, under command of Major Tate, was on the way from the fort to the scene of hostilities.

The American troops guarded the border to prevent either party crossing the line and warned residents of the American town to keep inside their houses to avoid stray bullets, which fell frequently in the residence district.

WOUNDED IN ARM.

Tax Collector Nunez of Agua Prieta was wounded in the arm, while on the American side, C. L. Montague of Tucson, who acted as peace envoy in yesterday's negotiations, returned to Nogales and reported that General Obregon's force numbered 1,000 and that reinforcements were expected to day. It was stated that General Ojeda and his federals could not arrive from Agua Prieta before nightfall and the garrison set itself on the way from the fort to the scene of hostilities.

FERRYBOAT STICKS IN MUD; AUTOS ON BOARD

A number of automobile and horse-drawn delivery wagons starting from Oakland for San Francisco this morning on the ferryboat Melrose, were held up through the vessel striking mud off the foot of Peralta street. The vessel will not be removed until this afternoon when high tide sets in.

The Melrose, owned by the Southern Pacific, started from its Oakland moorings at about 6:15 this morning. A number of passengers and delivery wagons were on board. At 6:22 it struck the mud and was held there since. The vessel is in charge of Captain Richmond, and was on its regular course, it is said, when the mud was struck. The ship's officers are at a loss to explain the accident.

MAN AUTOMOBILE DRIVEN BY MILITARY POLICE STRUCK BY BRAVES BULLETS.

United States Consul Simpich drove an automobile carrying a Red Cross flag and filed with nurses through a shower of bullets to the aid of the wounded.

Many automobiles of Nogales residents were put in commission bringing the wounded to hospitals here.

Eighteen wounded were being cared for in Nogales at noon when the deadly firing continued with the defenders holding their positions.

Kostorlitzky expressed fear of an assault directly from the front, which would greatly endanger residents on the Arizona side.

While in her home here, Mrs. Ada M. Gibson was struck in the heel of her shoe by a stray bullet. A small

PRESIDENT WARNS MEXICO.
WASHINGTON, March 13.—Peremptory warnings have been given to the federal and rebel forces in Mexico by the Wilson administration that under no circumstances must firing which would endanger the lives of Americans be allowed.

FORBID RETURN FIRE.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—American troops on the Mexican border have been forbidden to return the fire of Mexican troops except on specific authorization from the War Department at Washington. This instruction has been sent by direction of Secretary Garrison to Brigadier-General Bliss in command of the border forces, in conformity with the war department's purpose to remove all possible causes of friction between the Americans and Mexicans, especially in the neighborhood of Nogales, along the Arizona line, the center of a fight between the contending Mexican factions.

The initial step in the policy was taken when General Bliss was instructed to withdraw the American border patrols far enough from the line to keep them out of sight from the Mexican guards on the south side.

CAPITAL APPREHENSIVE.

MEXICO CITY, March 13.—News from those northern districts which have not yet accepted the Huerta government continues to cause apprehension here. The junction of the citizens and troops of the state of Sinaloa with the Constitutionalists is regarded as of considerable importance. Reports of the close affiliation of the states of Sonora and Sinaloa with Lower California and the territory of Tepic give foundation to a belief that the two latter will join in the movement.

On the other hand the insurrectionary movement under Carranza, government of Coahuila, appears to be a thing of the past. During the debate on the amnesty bill last night in the chamber, a deputy from Sonora declared that the reason for Governor Mayorena's revolt in that state was his fear that the new government would demand an accounting of the state funds.

There has been no marked development in the negotiations between the government and the brothers Zapata, but promises of co-operation by other leaders in the south continue.

DIAZ WILL NOT RETURN.

MEXICO, March 13.—General Porfirio Diaz declared today that he would not return to Mexico. He arrived this morning on the Adriatic. He appeared in excellent health.

"All my efforts, however," he said, "will be directed toward assisting my country to reach a condition of prosperity. I would go back to Mexico only in case intervention in that country by the United States. At such a time all Mexican citizens without distinction would be united against the foreign invader."

Former President Taft said General Diaz had given him full assurances that the United States was not planning anything of the kind, "but nobody can tell," he added, "what the new American administration may project."

Diaz expects to remain here two days.

GARRISON INCREASED.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 13.—With the arrival early today 200 additional state troops under Prefecto Bracamontes Aguia Prieta Constitutional garrison today contains 950 men. A force of 300 is being organized to pursue General Ojeda's retreating column.

The 250 men arrested in California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada and a portion of Arizona ask a further classification of the various trades comprising the brotherhood and an advance in wages of 50 cents a day.

MAY CHANGE ORDINANCES.

BERKELEY, March 13.—The city commissioners are considering changes in the ordinances which were adopted in January. City Attorney H. C. Stants has been directed to draw up a new set of ordinances. The handbill ordinance which is proposed to change provides that no handbill shall be delivered except enclosed in an envelope. An amendment is favored by Mayor Wilson.

Plans for the big banquet to open the social activities of the organization and several matters of common good to be reported on by committees, are features to be taken up at the next meeting of the directors of the Commercial club, to be held Tuesday evening at the clubrooms in the Hotel Oakland. President Harmon Bell will preside.

Number of Superior Judges in Kern County Is Increased.

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—Assembly Bill 48, by Filmore, increasing the number of superior judges in Kern county from two to three, was passed, as was also A. B. 592, by Bohannan, prohibiting a sale of firearms to Indians.

The greater part of the morning session was taken up with arguments on assembly bills 110, by Bohannan, providing that deeds of trust are to be treated practically the same as mortgages in regard to execution for non-payment of interest. The bill provides that in order to prevent a garnishment for male as under the present law, personal service on the borrower must be made.

The debate was occasioned by Assemblyman H. W. Brown of San Mateo, who referred to Bohannan's contention that debts of trust are to be treated practically the same as mortgages in regard to execution for non-payment of interest.

noticed until an hour afterwards. By that time Ng Sing had been removed by his friends and had been placed in hiding. Every effort by the police to trace the cause of the shooting so far has met with failure.

The police were notified of the shooting by Gee See, brother of Captain Chin, who is landlord of the lodging house in which the shooting occurred. Captain J. F. Lynch rushed to the scene in the police automobile, but the Chinese gunmen had made their escape. The police found eleven bullet holes through the door of room 33, and the bullets were found in the bed and in the wall behind.

Several of the bullets were steel nosed and this led the police to the belief that two guns were used.

Patrolman D. Connolly received the first word of the shooting, and with the aid of other patrolmen made a search for gunmen. No trace of them was found.

HEARS GUNMEN.

Connally found Long Lee, a Chinese friend of Ng Sing, at 3:15 this morning and learned that the wounded man was being cared for by his men. Long Lee told of Ng Sing's experience last night. He said: "Ng Sing was asleep when he heard people outside the door. He thought it might be policemen looking for him so he lay quiet. Then he realized that the people talking were two Chinese. One said he knew the direction of the bed. Ng Sing got out of bed and tiptoed across the room, getting out of line with the door. As he did so the men suddenly began shooting and two revolvers sent bullets through the door. Ng Sing was wounded in the leg. After the shooting the men ran away."

"ME NO SABEE."

With the first shot every man in the place covered his head with bedclothes and was interrogated by the patrolmen denied that they had been shot.

The lodging house is a huge frame structure, built of wood, and is a labyrinth of dark passages, blind windows, doors that lead into small closets, and rooms huddled closely together. Here several hundred Chinese fishermen and laborers live like rats in a hole. Without knowing the premises thoroughly it is almost impossible to find any particular man's room.

BAD CHECK MAKER GIVEN 20 YEARS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—After a ringing denunciation of the traffic conducted by a half dozen bad bill passers and a scathing arraignment of Fred "Honky" Johnson, United States Justice Van Fleet sentenced him to twenty years' imprisonment at McNeil's Island and to pay a fine of $1000 today. At the same time William Moneth, arrested while passing bills in Oakland, was sentenced to three years at McNeil's Island and ordered to pay a fine of $500.

Johnson, as leader of the gang, made the bills. One of the men working for him was 80 years old. His assistants were employed on a commission basis to pay the currency which consisted of bills raised in nearly every instance from $1 to $20. They were passed in San Francisco, Oakland, Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and San Jose, as well as a number of smaller towns. With the arrest of Johnson it is thought that the operations of the gang will cease, although only a half dozen of his tools have been caught.

U. S. Officials Again to Seek Secret of Manufacturer.

Health service, which approval could only come after thorough tests.

The cure, for the government authorities have received culture from Dr. Friedmann and they have begun the making of sub-cultures through various culture media. When these sub-cultures are grown they will be tested on laboratory animals, such as monkeys, rabbits, mice and guinea pigs. The government will use the vaccine on no human beings but will keep constant watch of the patients already treated by Dr. Friedmann.

The public health service is daily besieged by tuberculosis sufferers seeking Dr. Friedmann's treatment. Members of Congress also are receiving appeals from persons in all sections of the country, but the government can do nothing at this time and can make no recommendations until a fair test has been made.

INOCULATIONS 10 PERSONS.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 13.—Dr. Frederick Francis Friedmann inoculated ten tuberculosis sufferers yesterday in the presence of a number of leading Canadian physicians and members of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. From thirty-seven patients gathered at the General Hospital, the Berlin physician selected ten whose cases were not beyond the incipient stage. Silently and scarcely glancing at the spectators, he worked under an apparent nervous tension, which relaxed at the conclusion of each demonstration.

No criticism of Dr. Friedmann's technique was advanced by any one of the group of the physicians present. These included Dr. J. W. MacCullough, medical officer of health for Ontario; Dr. Frederick Montizam-

FOURTH VICTIM DEAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The second killing in this city in connection with the high-blinder war of the Suey Sing and the Bing Kong, and the fourth to date since the present hostilities began, occurred in a room at 1123 Shatto Street last night. When Soo Tuit, a porter, was shot to death. So far three Bing Kong have been slain, the fourth killing in Fresno having been acknowledged by all parties to have been an error in identity. Soo, a Bing Kong, was a member of the Free Masons. He was followed into his lodgings by three high-blinders, who, using smokeless powder, fired at him from the rear. In all the reports of five shots were heard, but when Patrolman P. J. Welsh arrived there was no sign of the murderers. The killing was the direct result of the sending out of hatchet men by the Bing Kong to Oakland and other places to kill Suey Sing high-blinders. The latter organization anticipated the move and decided to add another to their crew. It is not thought that the man will be given any means, as in order to get even the Bing Kong, by time-honored precedent, will have to kill three Suey Sing men.

FEDERAL OFFICER ACTS.

United States District Attorney John L. McNamara this morning began the waging of a war on the Chinese high-blinder organizations and has decreed that so far as lies in his power he will put an end to the battles of the tongs. Simultaneously with his announcement that all of the pressure of the immigration bureau and the federal court would be brought to bear on the situation, came the announcement of the arrest of Len Yuen, Chin Dock, Kwong Nin Fong and Lee Sheing, all members of the Suey Sing and Bing Kong tongs, who are at present at war, not only in this city but in Oakland and other cities and towns of the State. The first three named Chinese were sent over to Angel Island with bonds fixed at $10,000, and Lee Sheing, who had under $1000 bond. All were arrested today as they left the Hall of Justice by United States Immigration Inspector Frank Ainsworth and all face deportation.

TAX ASSOCIATION PLANS SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

Meeting to Be Held Next Week to Launch Financial Canvass

A joint meeting of the charter and the executives' committees of the Alameda County Tax Association was held last night in the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of preparing to meet some 250 delegates appointed by various civic associations and improvement clubs of the county. The meeting was presided over by Mark L. Requa, president of the Tax Association, and was attended by nearly all the members of the two committees. A spirited discussion was held over several matters relating to the coming meeting, and also over the best form of accounting to be used in the collection of $50,000 which the association wants for its work.

The members present went on record in the matter of presenting to the legislature now in session certain amendments to the state constitution. These amendments, in the form of suggestions, are being prepared by the legislative committee, and were read to the meeting last night by H. S. Robinson. The report stated that the amendments were essential before the combined city and county charter could be put into effect. One was an amendment to Sec. 6, Article 11 of the Constitution, the other amended Sec. 74, Article 11. It appears that bills proposing amendments to these sections are now before the legislature. In Senate bill 28, and Assembly bill 20, and the committee suggested that the Tax Association send a member to Sacramento with its proposed changes. M. L. Requa was appointed to make the trip.

CHARTER GOVERNS.

Attorney Robinson stated that under the present system of charters government a municipality is only permitted to do those things specifically provided for in its charter; under the proposed amendments a municipality will be able to do all things municipal not specially prevented by law. The members who aided

Ancient Roman Coin Discovered in Indian Mound

CHICAGO, March 13.—Discovery of an ancient Roman coin in an Illinois Indian mound at least 300 years old may open an unrevealed epoch in ancient American history, according to Dr. Alfred Emerson, prominent numismatist.

Dr. Emerson said that he never had seen a coin like it and could only estimate that it had been made in Rome or Greece in the period between 250 B. C. and 250 A. D.

"It shows," he said, "that there must have been some prehistoric connection with the American continent before the white invasion, or that some one of the earlier explorers happened to possess the coin and it fell into the Indians' hands. It is hard to understand how one of these explorers could have in his possession a coin more than 300 years old."

The coin was found by S. W. Leenee of Chicago in Hancock county, who turned it over to Dr. Emerson for classification.

in drawing up these suggestions were Professor William Carter Jones, Chas. E. Snook and Attorney Robinson.

J. Y. Eccleston, J. W. Phillips and Frank Woodward were named a committee of three to prepare a proper report, form, and work out the simplest and best system for the collection and receipting for the small donations which the association expects to collect in its $50,000 educational fund. It was suggested that a dollar certificate, something like a clearing house certificate in shape and color, be issued as a receipt, the names of the purchasers being preserved for the good of the campaign when the charter proposed is up for the voters to decide.

TO RAISE FUNDS.

The big meeting next Wednesday night will be the launching of this campaign for funds. Of some 155 civic associations and improvement clubs, invited to the meeting, all of whom are expected next Wednesday at the meeting.

In addition to securing, if possible, at least 100 volunteer collectors for funds, the association has had printed placards which the merchants about the city will post in their places of business, and every merchant asked has consented to act also as collector, or receiver, of dollar subscriptions, issuing receipts of the same.

Victor H. Metcalf is chairman of the finance committee, and the other members are W. W. Garthwaite and J. F. Carlson. These three men will be responsible for the funds as they are collected.

The money so collected will be used in securing complete data and information on the proposed form of charter.

HOW PLANT BURNS.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Fire of a mysterious origin yesterday destroyed the main dwelling, tank house, and store house of the Frater Hop Company, near North. The loss is more than four hundred thousand dollars. As an exact fact the annual expenditures of the company are about ten million dollars for government alone.

SCHOOL AND PLAYGROUND

FREMONT HIGH HAS EXCELLENT BILL FOR TOMORROW

The students of the John C. Fremont high school will take part in the annual athletic performance which will be given tomorrow evening in the Fremont assembly hall. It will be a vaudeville entertainment and will be managed entirely by the pupils. The vocal music will be supplied by the glee club. C. McCarthy, who has often appeared in sketches before the student body, will present a minstrel act which will be original. His assistant will be Lou Jordan.

The girls of Miss Florence Week's class will give quaint folk and Swedish dances in costume.

Preceding the show there will be a basketball game between the Fremont high school first team and the Fruitvale High School. The basketball fans will assemble at the rostrum sections and there will be much enthusiasm.

FIRST BASEBALL RALLY HELD AT HIGH SCHOOL

The first baseball rally of the Oakland high school term was held Wednesday noon in one of the classrooms. This rally was for the O. H. S. A. H. S. first B. C. A. L. league game. The rally aroused spirit in the students, and a few of these spirit carried this spirit too far after the game, and the students got concussed eyes and swollen fingers. But the latter effects did not hinder the rally.

Edwards asked the students to back the rally in the financial end, as it takes a large amount to carry this school through a successful term.

The baseball coach, Herbert Remmer, made his first appearance at this rally. Brooks gave a lengthy speech at this rally, which was well received.

FIREMEN COMPLAIN OF DIFFICULTY OF WORK

NEW YORK, March 13.—Complaints of excessive periods of labor, want of food, increase of work athausen from over heat, blistered hands, scorched clothing and added responsibility were made by railroad firemen as witnesses before the arbitration board which, under the Erdman act, is seeking to settle the firemen's demands on 51 eastern roads, for better pay and extra rewards on large locomotives.

The super-heated engine used on some roads, required in most of the testimony.

W. S. Carter, president of the Firemen's Association, said his side would try to prove that this cause does not reduce the labor of the firemen, but increases the companies' profits.

TRYING TO DODGE CUPID IS OFTEN BUT HOPELESS TASK

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

[Copyright, 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.]

Every youth for love's sweet portion sighs;
Every maiden signs to win man's love;
Why, alas! should bitter pain arise
From the noblest passion that we prove?

HAT strange pranks Cupid plays with many a girl. As he generally approaches a girl incognito, it is often amusing to see how she will attempt to elude him. It is nothing short of wonderful the plans Cupid makes to bring congenial hearts together. They look and love.

Very often that which seems a gigantic task to a girl, and which she does her best to evade, may be the means by which she is met, made the one intended for her. It behooves all girls to accept all duties gracefully—the one a girl tries to get out of accomplishing may be the one which is to bring her happiness, love, and peace. For instance, she may owe a long postponed visit to poor old bedridden Aunt Susan. Her mother has urged it upon her as a duty. When she can no longer evade going she goes reluctantly, angry enough at having her spoiled through her mother's insistence. There are thousands of young girls who dearly love their aunts—there are others who consider it icksome to listen to their tales of woe if they are aged and helpless. They forget that their bright young faces are like a drift of light in homes where there is more shadow than sunshine.

"Aunt will be sure to be taken with a bad rheumatic spell," sighs the girl, noting the change of weather, "and I shall be expected to do no end of rubbing." Her fears regarding the "spell" are realized when she sees the doctor's carriage outside the door. Instead of being old Dr. Goode, she finds a young and very handsome physician in attendance on Aunt Susan.

The young man considers her a veritable angel to come such distance to minister to the dear old lady, and her eagerness to be with Aunt Susan as much as she can did not disabuse his mind of this idea. Cupid has done all that he contracted for and he leaves reluctantly on her part ends in an Easter wedding.

The young girl in the shop, whose duties require her to work extra hours, should always meet the situation cheerfully. She never knows what part romance and her future happiness may play in it. Cupid is a right jolly little elf, and delights in making up trouble than continual wrangling in a household. Lovers' quarrels are not the harmless affairs they are usually supposed to be.

CONGRESSMAN TO WED.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—John Ignacio Nolasco, congressman from this city, is to be married on Easter night to Miss Mary Ella Hunt of 239 Clement street.

Beer Exposed to Light for 5 Minutes Becomes Undrinkable

This is not our statement, but the deliberate opinion of one of the most renowned scientists in the world. Read the entire statement:

"We have tested beers repeatedly, placing the bottles in the direct sunlight, and testing the same after one, two, three and five minutes exposure, found that the beer with three and five minutes exposure became undrinkable on account of the peculiar odor developed. The detrimental effect of light upon beer can be successfully counteracted by the employment of brown or dark colored glass bottles, and such bottles are, therefore, recommendable." — Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentation.

It is not enough that beer be brewed pure, it must be kept pure.

Many Americans prefer beer in a light bottle. Most brewers follow the course of least resistance.

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives the best protection against light. Schlitz is sold in Brown Bottles to protect its purity from the brewery to your glass.

COSTLY SWORD IS GIFT FOR PRINCE

Greeks in America to Present
Constantine With Handsome Token.

NEW YORK, March 13.—A sword decorated with gold and jewels, costing $3000, which Greeks in America have purchased to send to Crown Prince Constantine of Greece, the commander-in-chief of the Greek army, has been finished, ready to send to the Crown Prince. The movement to purchase the sword began last November when news came of the capitulation of the Turkish garrison at Saloniki to Crown Prince Constantine.

The handle of the sword is made of solid gold and the blade of Toledo steel. The hilt is decorated with emerald bime and white Byzantine designs, suggestive of the conquest of Turkish territory. Set in diamonds and sapphires is the royal coat-of-arms of Greece and on the blade an inscription in Greek reads:

"To Constantine, the Liberator, from the Greeks in America, 1912."

The Greek colony in New York will have a celebration here next Sunday at which the sword will be formally dispatched to Crown Prince Constantine.

THEATER BILLS ATTRACTIVE Mlle. GENEE AT MACDONOUGH

Legislating Against Prosperity.

Many of the bills before the present Legislature bear the impress of private interest or personal antagonisms. A number of them are special legislation aimed at some industry or some class in a spirit of revenge. Apparently a good many of the legislators now at Sacramento think laws should be passed to make somebody jump and capital squirm. Enterprise and capital are things to be put under legislative ban, it seems, things of evil to be straight-jacketed if not suppressed.

The cement container bill is an example of trying to legislate an important and thriving industry out of existence. By the simple device of making it impossible to manufacture cement in California at a profit, the industry will be crippled if not destroyed and the capital invested in it made practically valueless. The pretense on which this bill is urged is absurd—ridiculous, in fact. It is all right for men to work at making cement and mixing concrete, but it is dangerous, forsooth, for men to handle cement in barrels, as it has always been handled, in shipping and storing!

Whether the purpose of the bill is revengeful or predatory matters little—the effect will be harmful without compensating benefit whatever. The cost of cement will be enormously increased and a promising industry crippled. The building industry will be burdened with an additional expense wholly unnecessary.

No good purpose is served by limiting the labor of fruit pickers under 18 years of age to eight hours a day. The effect will be to decrease the earning power of fruit pickers, increase the cost of fruit and decrease the profits of fruit growers and depress the value of orchard lands. The proposal is a blind striking at the roots of prosperity.

One good thing about the church as an institution is that it does not thrive on scandal, says a contemporary. Is this a shot at preachers who retail scandal from the pulpit? Some of them do not seem to realize that the church as an institution does not thrive on scandal.

Lane and Hetch-Hetchy.

Secretary Lane frankly favors San Francisco in the Hetch-Hetchy matter, but inasmuch as he was City and County Attorney when the city made its first effort to secure Hetch Hetchy valley as a reservoir site and the Tuolumne river as the source of a water supply he believes it would be an impropriety for him to reverse former Secretary Fisher's ruling. He therefore advises San Francisco to appeal to Congress. It should have been put up to Congress in the first place; or, if not then, when Hetch-Hetchy valley was included in a national park. Had that been done we are confident the controversy would have been settled long ago.

Hetch-Hetchy was never thrown open to public entry. The so-called location rights which James D. Phelan acquired for the city had no legal substance; they were merely squatter locations on unsurveyed public lands withheld from entry. They lapsed automatically when the territory in which the valley is included was set aside and dedicated as a public park. Apparently Secretary Lane appreciates the situation as well as the propertaries, and while he wants San Francisco to get the valley he thinks the grant should be made by legislative authority.

And he is right. The public domain should not be alienated by executive order. The consent of the representatives of the people should first be obtained. Had that been sought in the first place, much trouble would have been avoided and San Francisco's water plans expedited.

The City Commissioners are to be commended for revoking the license for Sullivan's roadhouse. They did their duty in circumstances that brought the public welfare in conflict with a human feeling as natural as it is worthy. This is said in no vindictive spirit, and with something of regret that it was necessary to make an example of a man who had hitherto conducted his place in an orderly if not exemplary manner. There were extenuating circumstances in Sullivan's case, but the evil which brought him before the Council is too grave to be temporized with. To have made an exception in his case would have invited a repetition of the offense. When you start to clean up it will not do to leave some unclean places untouched because they are less dirty than others. That was just the case here. Sullivan's punishment is severe, and in a certain sense he suffers vicariously for the sins of other; but fine distinctions cannot be drawn in matters of this kind. The Commissioners should adhere inflexibly to the wholesome rule they have laid down. If they do, the end of the roadhouse nuisance will have been reached.

Dress Reform in the Prisons.

Stripes are to be abolished in the State prisons. Hereafter the prison uniform is to be a cadet gray instead of the zebra-like garments heretofore in use.

Perhaps the change will serve a useful purpose; let us hope so, and not condemn the innovation until it has been fairly tried. But it is singular that no one has yet alluded to the real reason which prompted the adoption of a dress so garish and conspicuous as the one in use. The object was not to degrade the wearer, but to distinguish him from visitors and prison employes. The dress of the prisoner was made so ridiculously conspicuous as to make him distinguishable at a glance. In case a prisoner escaped his garb made him a marked man and made his identification and recapture more certain. Many people wear cadet gray, and an escaped convict wearing clothes of that color will not attract attention. The stripes were intended to attract attention, and therefore to make escape less easy.

It has been assumed that the color of the prison garb makes confinement more or less degrading, as the case may be, but such is not the fact. The infamy is in the crime and not in the punishment. The striped uniform was not adopted to increase the punishment, but to make the convict a marked man, for reasons which should be obvious to every thoughtful mind. But as a humanitarian cult proposes to treat convicts as unfortunates rather than criminals, the dress reform instituted in the prisons comports with the idea that punishment and not intent is the essence of crime.

If convicts are to be petted and pitied and regarded as the victims of cruel mischance, it is just as well, perhaps, that their raiment should not distinguish them from those who have never had the misfortune to be caught. It is possible that the dress reform will aid a moral reform; if it does not, it will aid some convict to escape, which will doubtless please Fremont Older and Arnold Lowrie quite as well.

LOVE LETTERS

We're not much interested in the announcement that the love letters of the Brownings are soon to be offered at auction. We do not intend to bid on the bunch—no matter how attractively they are tied up. Other people's love letters have never interested us—the reading of 'em, we mean. We never even got much amusement out of hearing missives of that sort declaimed in court. They don't seem inspiring when they're second-hand.

A love-letter isn't worth a thing to any person but the one to whom it is written. At least, that's the way we have always felt on the subject. POINTED PARAGRAPHS

# COLOMBIA'S ODD POSITION #

Colombia's refusal to compromise its controversy with the United States, arising out of the secession of Panama, is decidedly interesting and not a little confusing.

The intimation that the South American government deferred action in the belief that it would get more advantageous terms during the Wilson administration cannot but evoke a measure of amazement in the minds of the citizens of this country.

The uniform policy of the United States in dealing with other countries, whether of lesser or of equal size, has been to assume what it considers to be a fair attitude and then to stick consistently to these terms.

This nation never has descended to barter, although it has always manifested a generous desire for honorable compromise or fair arbitration.

Contemporaneous illustrations of its forbearance are furnished in the case of Cuba, Mexico and by the return of a portion of the absurdly large Boxer indemnity to China.

FATHER OF ALAMEDA
MINISTER VERY LOW

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Rev. E. H. Beeks, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, accompanied by Mrs. Beeks, left yesterday for Los Angeles, where he was called by the serious illness of his father. Rev. Beeks expects to be away for another week. During the first week of his pastorate here the minister was called south by the alarming illness of his parent, but the sick man rallied temporarily and showed considerable improvement. The thought of sinking spell again aroused the grave apprehension of his family and caused the minister and Mrs. Beeks to be again summoned from Alameda.

FAMOUS PAINTING HANGS IN NEW HOSTELRY 'BATTLE OF SAN JUAN HILL' REALISTIC CANVAS

VERESTCHAGIN'S FAMOUS PAINTING, "THE BATTLE OF SAN JUAN," PROPERTY OF FRANK C. HAVENS, ON EXHIBITION TODAY AT THE HOTEL OAKLAND.

Painting Purchased by Frank C. Havens for $18,000 Now at Hotel Oakland

Vassili Vereschagin's famous painting, "The Battle of San Juan Hill," which was purchased by Frank C. Havens for $18,000 in New York some months ago, has been loaned to the Hotel Oakland by Havens and is on exhibition there today for the first time in the West. This picture, the masterpiece of the painting of the battle of San Juan hill is clear and gay. The notes of the clarion when it calls to a charge are not more brilliant. The men in khaki, which the blue sky tints with its complementary orange, advance.

"They carry a silk regimental flag; other flags which the rapidity of the march causes to flutter. The men hats have the shapes that individuality gives to hats. Some are torn, some are crumpled, some were pierced by bullets."

The hundreds of visitors viewing the painting today at the Hotel Oakland pronounce it as wonderfully realistic.

The great German general, Von Moltke, said of Vereschagin's paintings:

"My soldiers shall not look upon his canvases. My generals that is different. They are supposed to have learned self-control, but private soldiers must not know before hand that war is really thus."

The noted critic, Henry Pene Du Bois, writing of "The Battle of San Juan Hill," when it was on exhibition in New York City, said:

"Vereschagin's painting of the battle of San Juan hill is clear and gay.

The notes of the clarion when it calls to a charge are not more brilliant.

Boy Loses Both Legs for Second Time Under Train

WESTBURY, L. I., March 13.—William Fitting, a 10-year-old lad, lost both of his legs for a second time yesterday. The first time, two years ago, he fell under

Long Island railroad train near the station at Glenhead. On artificial limbs he was standing at the station here yesterday when he saw a woman crossing the tracks in front of an express train. Recalling the accident which had befallen him, he shouted a warning to the woman, but she did not heed and young Fitting stepped his way to the train and stepped his feet from danger only to fall himself across the rails. Other persons on the platform saw the lad run over by the train and when it came to a stop they rushed to him, expecting to find him fatally hurt. He was picked up lifeless, but not in the least wounded, as the locomotive wheels had only broken off his wooden legs.

"On this trip we covered over 1300 miles in two weeks easy driving, having stopped over several days at various points along the route. Our Winton car gave us the best of service and no trouble whatsoever, with the exception of two punctures. We could not have found a more ideal time to make this tour than at this time as the roads were hard with no dust and the climate was delightful."

DELIGHTFUL TOUR BY WINTON PARTY

Idaho Motorists Travel Over
California Roads to Border Line.

(By EDMUND CRINNION)

Condition in the north at this time of the year being less favorable for touring, J. M. Brout, a prominent business man of Idaho Falls, Idaho, recently shipped his Winton six to this city, from which point he made an extensive tour of the Golden State. In company with his wife and a party of five he made the tour of the state from Oakland to the Mexican border, and Barney Hillstrom, a member of the party, describes their trip as follows:

"Leaving Oakland, we took the foot-hill boulevard route to San Jose, through the Santa Clara Valley and over the San Juan grade to Salinas, making our first night's stop at this point. We took the trip to Del Monte going over the seventeen-mile drive and along the various other points of interest in the vicinity. The next stage of our tour took us to Watsonville, where we found hotel accommodations anything but first-class. Continuing our journey we came to a point where a new bridge was being constructed over the Salinas river. This bridge, when completed, will prove a great attraction to auto tourists who are now being held up by a farmer who finds it exceedingly profitable to extort a few dollars from the unwary autoist who, upon attempting to ford the river, is stranded and is obliged to call upon the farmer for assistance. However, fortunately we had been warned of this and therefore, made a short detour by the way of Indian Valley, and at this stretch of road very good shape, we had no trouble.

"We had lunch at Paso Robles and made our night's stop at Santa Maria. Driving from Santa Barbara we didn't go down the coast route which is a little shorter and better, but went over the Casta Pass, preferring the mountain scenery. Here again we struck deep abode on account of the recent rains, but we came through O. K. The remainder of the road to Los Angeles through the San Fernando Valley was in fine shape.

"Leaving Los Angeles, we went by the way of the coast route to San Diego, making the 142 miles in one day's easy running. This is certainly a beautiful stretch, the road runs along the cliffs, winding in and out, and the beautiful scenery, together with the balmy ocean breezes, made motoring one big delight.

At San Diego, while the auto tourists continued to tourists and made a short side trip to the Mexican town of Tia Juana, where the usual Mexican bullfight was being held principally for the benefit of the American tourists who go across the border.

"Returning from San Diego, we took the inland route to Riverside. Here no auto tourist should miss taking the twenty-minute drive to Rubidoux, a single hill rising to the altitude of six hundred feet above the surrounding country.

"Looking in every direction you see the beautiful orange country below you. This, to me, seemed the most beautiful view on the entire trip. We also drove to Redlands, visiting the famous Smiley Heights via the Sunset drive. Here, the lofty snowcapped San Bernardino mountains towered on one side, and the orange country stretching as far as the eye can see on the other, presents one of the most beautiful sights to be seen in California. Returning to Riverside, we drove over the beautiful Foothill boulevard to Pasadena, and thence back to Los Angeles.

"On this trip we covered over 1300 miles in two weeks easy driving, having stopped over several days at various points along the route. Our Winton car gave us the best of service and no trouble whatsoever, with the exception of two punctures. We could not have found a more ideal time to make this tour than at this time as the roads were hard with no dust and the climate was delightful."

IRISH-AMERICAN LEAGUE IS ACTIVE*Holds Smoker and High Jinks and Organizes Drill Team.

The Irish-American League of Alameda county held a smoker and high jinks Monday evening at their hall, Twenty-second and Grove streets.

James O'Rourke, from the Irish-American Truth Society of Chicago, who is here on a visit, gave some very popular selections on the flute and cornet. He also spoke of the great objects and benefits of the society.

James F. Flynn has started to organize a drill team from members of the league and expects in the near future to be able to compete with other drill teams such as the Elks, Eagles and other similar societies.

The ladies auxiliary of the league will give a whist party and dance immediately after Lent and any one who has attended the past parties is well aware of the good time that is to be had; these affairs are complimentarily free.

T. F. Dorgan has offered a gold pin to be presented to the most popular member of the league, to be decided by a voting contest at the next party and dance. The date of same will be announced in this paper.

After Long Suffering

Women Are Constantly Being Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Worth mountains of gold," says one woman. Another says, "I would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all the other medicines for women in the world." Still another writes, "I should like to have the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound thrown on the sky with a searchlight so that all suffering women could read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their ills."

We could fill a newspaper ten times the size of this with such quotations taken from the letters we have received from grateful women whose health has been restored and suffering banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished such a universal success? Why has it lived and thrived and kept on doing its glorious work among the sick women of the world for more than 30 years?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has ever approached its success is plainly and simply because there is no other medicine so good for women's ills.

Here are two letters that just came to the writer's desk—only two of thousands, but both tell a comforting story to every suffering woman who will read them—and be guided by them.

FROM MRS. D. H. BROWN.

Iola, Kansas.—"During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctor'd with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken 12 bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. D. H. Brown, 809 North Walnut Street, Iola, Kan.

Give 'Syrup of Figs.'

Look at the tongue, mother! It is a sure sign that your little one's insides, the stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are clogged up with putrefying waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When your child is listless, drooping, pale, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily or is cross, irritable, feverish, sick, with short breath, bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhea, sour throat or is full of cold, give a few teaspoonfuls of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed. A little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on this package.

Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Extract of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

Fiendish Crime of Father Will Be Punished on the

FORT SMITH, Ark., March 14.—Rev. Marion Capps, a Methodist preacher, was convicted and sentenced to death by a jury in the Circuit Court here last night, on the charge of having burned to death his three motherless children. The defendant appeared unconcerned when the verdict was read.

Capps was charged with having tied his three children to an oil-soaked bed, to which he set fire. Two of the children perished in the flames, while a third died after escaping from the house. A man, Bertha, aged 15, and a son, Ellis, aged 14 years, who recovered from their injuries, testified against the father.

They said that when they were awakened by the fire they found that they had been tied to their beds. They were forced to wait until the flames burned the rope before they could escape, they said. The girl testified that her father was leaving the room just after she woke and that he locked the door after him.

When they met her to effect a reconciliation the tragedy resulted.

Beers and his wife had separated several months before her death. They belonged to different churches and they could not agree as to the religious training of the children.

Reclamation Head Takes Issue
With Railroad Man's Speech.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Director E. F. Newell, of the government reclamation service, in a statement issued here yesterday, takes issue with remarks credited to James J. Hill, in a recent speech.

The railroad magnate is quoted as stating that the irrigation work of the government could be accomplished at half the amount now expended.

In his statement Newell declares that Hill shows a surprising lack of accurate information, and apparently clings to the wornout theory that the government cannot do work as cheaply as private enterprises.

Newell asserts that "a compilation of the costs of all the irrigation projects of considerable size recently built or in process of construction in the United States by private or corporate capital, including in this estimate more than 100 large systems, shows that the average cost of water per acre is not far from $60. The average cost for rights on the government projects is $46."

Considering that it is generally conceded that the government has built more substantial and enduring structures and has provided an ample water supply which many large enterprises have not, the comparison of cost is even more favorable to the government works.

SANTA BARBARA IS RICH IN OIL

Fourth in walnut product, 2,678,039 pounds. Fifth in sugar beet product, 8,849 tons. Fifth in olive product, 1,275,022 pounds. Fifth in total mineral product, $3,324,960. Sixth in oat product, 233,171 bushels. Seventh in number of cattle, 87,576. Ninth in number of sheep, 86,533. Ninth in value of domestic animals and farms, $1,119,104. Fifteenth in barley product, 632,605 bushels. Seventeenth in milk product, 3,114,697 gallons.

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—Petroleum production, farming, stock raising and horticulture are among the diversified accomplishments that place Santa Barbara county up in the lead with the counties of California. To be exact, Santa Barbara comes third among the 58 counties in petroleum production, third in dry and edible bean production, fourth in walnut product, fifth in olive product, sixth in oat product, seventh in number of cattle, ninth in number of sheep, ninth in value of domestic animals and farms, fifteenth in barley product, sixteenth in milk product.

The comparative figures are based on an article in the Santa Barbara county prepared by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, for publication in the State Blue Book. They were gathered originally from the United States Census Reports for 1910, supplemented by authentic state reports. Jordan finds that with a land area of 1,753,800 acres, Santa Barbara county had 1,120,475 acres in farms. The value of farm property was $43,544,075, an increase in value in ten years of $25,272,213, or 38.3 per cent. Domestic animals on farms were valued at $14,662. The value of animals slaughtered was $19,331, and the receipts from the sale of animals $662,245. The number of cattle, horses, mules, hogs, sheep and goats was 204,217. Wool and mohair produced amounted to 27,787 pounds and the value of wool and mohair was $26,308.

Dairy products are given a value of $394,516, and poultry and eggs produced $151,719. The milk produced amounted to 3,144,697 gallons, butter fat sold 292,751 pounds, the number of poultry raised was 55,169, and the egg product 407,168 dozen. Honey produced amounted to 288,875 pounds, and honey and wax valued at $16,678. Butter product for the year ending September 30, 1910, was $10,527.

HUGE CROP VALUES.
All crops had a value of $3,568,350. Cereals were valued at $565,078; other grains and seeds $669,908, hay and forage, $771,922; vegetables, 244,206; fruit and nuts, $539,465; all other crops, $558,671. There were 89,332 acres planted to cereals; 50,070 in hay and forage; 949 in oats, 2300 in wheat; 26,294 in barley; 22,355 in dry and edible beans; 625 in alfalfa, 47,602 in grains cut green for hay; 1524 in potatoes; 11,320 in sugar beets; 26,173 bushels of wheat; 27,832 bushels; barley 683,605 bushels; beans 367,855 bushels; alfalfa hay 2205 tons; grains cut green for hay; 64,630 tons; potatoes 151,532 bushels; sugar beets 80,849 tons.

Equally interesting are the figures on horticultural development. In 1910 Santa Barbara county had 34,200 bearing orchard fruit trees, 89,028 bearing tropical fruit trees, and 97,081 bearing nut trees. Individually there were 2744 bearing apple trees; 9560 bearing peach trees; 2612 bearing pear trees; 2730 bearing plum and prune trees; 5312 bearing apricot trees; 4246 bearing orange trees; 46,181 bearing lemon trees; 44,253

The total orchard fruit product was $8,358 and the total nut product $,581,494 pounds.

"Santa Barbara counts," says Secretary Jordan, "holds a peculiar and important position. Set as a rectangular parallelogram in the angle of the California coast, where the shore bands like an elbow at Point Conception, and trends toward the sun, it is ribbed and stays with parallel and transverse mountain ranges, broken and diversified, sometimes sunlit valleys, washed by the sea on both southern and western shores. More than one-half of the county—the eastern portion, which is rugged and mountainous—constitutes one of the national preserves for the conservation of water supply and the preservation of natural forests. The remaining portion of the county is made up of four sections. That portion drained by the Santa Maria river, and forming the northern part of the county, the Los Alamos valley, drained by the Santa Antonio creek, the valley of the Santa Ynez, and the Santa Barbara valley, which is all that portion lying south of the Santa Ynez mountains."

OIL IS DISCOVERED.

Oil was first discovered in the Santa Barbara valley in 1900. It since has become one of the leading oil sections of the state. Climatic conditions in the valley are most favorable to the growth of the apricot, and large quantities are raised and dried for export. The soil of the lower levels is well adapted to the cultivation of sugar beets, beans, potatoes, corn and especially wheat and barley. Higher up are the hill lands, where rich grasses are favorable for stock raising and dairying.

The Los Alamos valley is long, narrow and fertile. The chief industry is grain farming, wheat, barley and oats, grain, hops, cotton, tobacco and sugar beets.

The Santa Ynez valley is also very productive, especially wheat and barley.

The Santa Barbara valley forms the central part of the county, and here wheat growing, stockraising, dairying and olive growing are the principal industries. It is a healthful district, with a dry, warm climate in summer and a cool bracing atmosphere in winter, with an occasional frost, but no snow.

The Santa Barbara is a long narrow strip, in width from 2 to 8 miles, and length 50 miles. It is famous for its wonderful climate, out of the way of winds, and sunny the year round.

The soil is favorable for most every crop grown.

Beautiful drives are one of the features.

Bathing is of the best, yachting, boating and everything that one could desire are to be found here.

"Santa Barbara has a good right to be proud of its showing," comments Secretary Jordan, who adds, "but the time is not far distant when the accomplishments of today will be exceeded many times over."

A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA.

It is often the fatal sequence. La Grippe comes on to weaken the system and lower the vital resistance.

R. C. Collin, of the Bayview Hospital, says he is troubled with severe La Grippe cough which completely exhausted him.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soon stopped the coughing spells entirely.

BARKEEPER BOUND BY THREE THUGS

Robber Trio Rifle Cash Register and Tie Victim to Railing.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—With his hands and feet tied to the railing around the bar in such a manner as to prevent him from freeing himself, Martin Beck, a saloon keeper of 801 Buchanan street, was found at a late hour last night by Mrs. George Tietjen after robbers had rifled the cash register.

Beck was behind the bar when three men entered and asked for drinks. As he turned to procure the glasses from the sideboard they whipped out revolvers and leveled them at his head. He was ordered to come around to the front and was immediately seized by two of the bandits who bound his hands and feet together and gagged him with a handkerchief.

After they bound him to the railing, Beck managed to dislodge the gag and shout for aid. Mrs. Tietjen heard his cries and raced to the bar after which the bandits notified her.

OF TRIBUNE TONIGHT

Orpheum Will Encompass Baseball, Press and Fairest Femininity

This evening, at the Orpheum theater, the various members of the Chicago American league baseball team, with their wives, manager and visiting newspaper men, with the ladies of the party, will be the guests of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE and the Orpheum will be the hosts of the White Sox No. 1, as they leave for their playing trip to the east Monday.

The White Sox are the center of much local interest because of their spring training session spent in Oakland.

It is a safe assertion that Oakland will be the best baseball city in the country in the White Sox's contest for the American League championship than any city outside of Chicago itself.

BISHOP 53 YEARS IN CHICAGO CHURCH

Celebrates Anniversary of His First Sermon as Curator.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Bishop Charles Edward Cheney has just completed his fifty-third year as rector of Christ's Reformed Episcopal Church here. He celebrated yesterday, this anniversary of his first sermon in the church, by relating stories of the early history of Chicago, and also some interesting ones regarding his own church. One of the latter follows:

"Not long ago an elderly stranger came into my study and asked if I knew anything about the old marriage records of the church. I was married here just thirty years ago, he said, 'and my wife has lost her marriage certificate. Please try to put you to all of this trouble—it will be no end of a job, I fear. Dear old Bishop Cheney—he married us you know—he could find it in a minute if he were alive."

Bishop Cheney said that the unusual ministration of fifty-three years with one congregation had been easily managed. He said that no minister ever had a more kind and generous people and he attributed his success to waiting, watching, working and praying.

OPPOSE INCREASE.

PARIS, March 13.—Some opposition to the immense and hurried increase of the peace footing of the French army has made its appearance. Some 350 professors of the Sorbonne, among them the finest scholars in France, have issued a united address to the people of France not to yield thoughtlessly "to the military panic and to forces of reaction which tend toward desperate adventures hostile to the Republican government."

'SOME BOY' TO DO FREE GLOBE TROT

Oakland's 'Best All Rounder' to Be Picked by Education Board.

Some boy, the best all 'round boy in the Oakland public schools, is to be given a free trip around the world. The Oakland Chamber of Commerce and the Oakland Board of Education are making the plans. The boy will be picked out during the next week. On March 30 he will leave this city and before he gets back he will have seen America, England, France, Italy, the Suez canal, Australia, China, the Philippines and Hawaii. He will go one year. And it won't cost him a cent. The plan has been proposed by Rev. Herbert A. Jamp, pastor of the First Congregational church. It sends this "Oakland Boy" around the world to represent our city in connection with the tour of the Columbia Park Boys' Club, organized by Sidney Peixotto of San Francisco. Mr. Peixotto says he will have "Oakland" printed on the military colors of his uniform. And wherever this boy is he will inquire whether in the name of a British merchant or a French family or an Australian business man, he will be talking up Oakland, and telling his hosts that there is not city in America like the city where "rain and water meet."

EXPLAINS PLAN.

Rev. Mr. Jamp appeared before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce recently and explained the plan.

"I am interested in moral education and I am an enthusiastic booster, hence my interest in picking out the best all-round boy of the city for a round-the-world tour. The reward of this wonderful trip comes to a lad who has made good. It will encourage others to try to make good."

"The world-tour of American boys," he went on to say, "is the idea of Sidney Peixotto, one of the best-known workers with boys in the country. The company will consist of fifty boys and every boy can do things. The party will pay its own expenses by giving band concerts and athletic meets in every land they visit. Every boy in the company must play a band instrument and must be an athlete, must have intelligence and good character. About forty boys are regular members of the Columbia Park Club. These boys will represent ten of the great cities—Chicago, Boston, Washington, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Kansas City and others have already made plans to send a representative boy.

TO SELECT BEST.

The boy will be picked out by the Board of Education. Each school will select its one boy. The best all-round boy of each school will be brought together and examined, and the best six candidates chosen. One of these six will be selected by a committee of three made up of an appointee of the Mayor, an appointee of the Board of Education and an appointee of the Chamber of Commerce.

After the "Oakland Boy" has been chosen there will be a concert given by the Columbia Park Boys' Band and Athletic Troupe, at which time the "Oakland Boy" will be commissioned by the Mayor. The proceeds of this concert go to the expenses of the world-tour as an initiation fee from the Oakland Boy. The boy will then send letters home from time to time, and these letters will be printed in the newspapers.

Mr. Peixotto believes that nothing is so interesting as a live American boy, and that the world will be glad to welcome the splendid samples he brings along with him. Oakland is fortunate to be included in the limited number of cities to be represented.

SECRETARY LANE IN FAVOR OF PLAN

Will Advise Congress That the Hetch Hetchy Project Is Advisable.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—In approving maps yesterday filed by the city of San Francisco, which will permit the city to protect its water rights in Tuolumne river together, Secretary of the Interior Lane took an important step toward his long-cherished project of irrigating California covering the Hetch Hetchy, Lake Eleanor and Cherry Valley water sites, and which will allow the city to begin preliminary work on its formal scheme of water storage.

Showing every phase of the Hetch Hetchy plan, the maps approved by Secretary Lane were filed by John R. Freeman on January 17. The maps show the location of the dam, the proposed dam, and the general plan for water storage from the Hetch Hetchy, Lake Eleanor and Cherry Valley sources.

Secretary Lane's formal order is as follows:

"The foregoing map, filed under the act of February 15, 1901, by the city of San Francisco, assignee of James D. Phelan, is hereby approved, subject to the filing of a map of the portion of the San Joaquin River between the mouth of the San Joaquin and the confluence of the San Joaquin and Tuolumne rivers, and the fulfillment of such conditions as may be hereafter named. It is understood that no permanent work of this kind whatsoever and that such map as may be filed for the purpose of enabling the city of San Francisco to protect and develop its water rights acquired under the laws of the State of California pending action by Congress under the approval of the city of San Francisco.

"The approval of May 11, 1908, of the Hetch Hetchy reservoir, are rights hereby revoked."

FRANKLIN K. LANE, Secretary.

Accompanying the formal statement, Secretary Lane prepared a memorandum reiterating what he has previously said to the effect that as he had been the original attorney for the city in this matter he would not be likely to grant a permit if it would be unbecoming to grant a permit in the face of a denial of Secretary Fisher, although the view he now holds was held by him when representing the city in its negotiations with the state legislature. In his opinion, the highest use to which this water could be put was to make it serve the purposes proposed by the city of San Francisco.

"The approval of the maps makes up for disappointment in lack of action by Secretary Fisher. Even if we now had the right to take it up, at least we can go ahead now, feeling that we are not losing any time waiting for Congress to end the long fight for our water supply."

PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR THE BONDS

Three Mass Meetings Arranged at Meeting of Citizens' Committee.

BERKELEY, March 13.—To arrange a campaign in favor of the bond issues to be voted upon April 12, citizens' committee, composed of representatives of improvement clubs, the Chamber of Commerce and other business men, was organized, met last evening at the city hall. Three mass meetings before the election were planned, as well as other details of a strenuous campaign.

Proposed to be voted in the call total $505,000. They are as follows: Sewer system, including interception and extension sewers, $475,000; fire department improvement, including houses and equipment, $35,000; playgrounds for schools, in all parts of the city, $25,000.

Major J. Stitt Wilson was chosen chairman of the committee. Professor J. C. Merriam vice-chairman, F. A. Mueller treasurer, and Wells Drury secretary.

The executive committee was chosen, consisting of Leon Martin, J. W. Flinn, T. H. Fallon and the elected officers of the committee before mentioned.

Committee on publicity and promotion—J. W. Flinn, Mrs. W. M. Marsden, Professor E. P. Lewis, Wells Drury, G. L. Schneider.

Committee on finance—F. A. Mueller, F. W. Scarby, Mrs. V. W. Moore, W. S. Brown, G. L. Schneider.

Committee on speakers—Leon Martin, Howard H. Krueger, Mrs. Inez Brown, Professor J. T. Preston.

The committee were authorized to add to their number any in the community which are able to do so.

Another meeting of the committee will be held next Monday evening, March 17, a cordial invitation being extended to all citizens to be present and help the work along.

In opening the meeting Mayor Wilson presented a clear and convincing statement of the needs of the city in regard to the matters provided for in the proposed bond issue, and the speakers were so eloquent and inspiring so rapidly that public utilities which were considered sufficient when they were provided are now entirely inadequate, and explained that the contemplated improvements will be available next summer time. It is felt that he is free to advocate these bond issues, because he is not a candidate for re-election, and now stands in the relation of citizen-mayor, entirely disinterested, and his strong suggestion of various motives as to why he would have nothing to do with the spending of the money.

A resolution was adopted inviting all candidates for office to meet in favor of the bond issue, and a committee was directed to request that speakers be detailed to appear at all campaign meetings where they are welcome, whether the meetings are held in public halls or in private residences.

WANT WOMAN AS CITY INSPECTOR

Think the Sanitary Regulations Will Be Better Enforced by Feminine Eyes.

BERKELEY, March 13.—The appointment of a woman as sanitary inspector is one of the plans favored by a coterie of local women who have interested themselves in the enforcement of the local women who have interested themselves in the enforcement of the local sanitary ordinances. The matter was broached at a meeting of the Women's council, at which Dr. John N. Force, member of the Board of Health, spoke of the influence of women upon clean cities.

"We are heartily in favor of a woman sanitary inspector," says Mrs. J. B. Force, "and the organization which believes she could accomplish much good. Men naturally leave such things to women, because women have been trained in cleanliness and sanitation in the home."

Others interested in the movement are Mrs. William E. Colby, new president of the Alameda district of the Women's Club Federation; Mrs. Hubert N. Rowell, president of the California Federation of Mothers' clubs, and Mrs. M. H. Cartwright, a prominent local civic worker.

The plan they wish to follow here is that of Boston and Portland, where women inspectors have been able to accomplish beneficial results.

INJURED TRACK HAND IN RAILROAD HOSPITAL

ALAMEDA, March 13.—Paganella, the Southern Pacific track hand, who was struck by an Alameda local electric train yesterday, was removed yesterday afternoon from the Alameda sanatorium to the railroad hospital in San Francisco. He has a broken left shoulder, a broken right leg and a possible fracture of the skull. The detailed examination of the injured head, which was made by Dr. E. M. Keye, the Alameda railroad physician, until Paganella had been moved to the San Francisco hospital, Domenico is an Oakland resident and lives at the Roma hotel. He is a single man.

CALIFORNIA IOWANS TO ASK FOR STATE EXHIBIT

BERKELEY, March 13.—Iowa natives residing in the bay cities decided at a meeting held here last evening to memorialize the Iowa state legislature with a plea for an appropriation for a state building and exhibit at the Panam-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco. The meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Herbert Jones at 2323 Haste street. The Bay City Iowa Association and Berkeley circle, Ladies of Iowa, attended the meeting.

F. Breezy acted as temporary chairman and Miss Bertha Truman as secretary. L. Conroy represented the exposition directors with a suggestion for a memorial to the legislature of Iowa.

No action was taken by the following committee: chairman, Samuel Shortridge; Dr. Henry Morris, L. J. Truman Jr., Frank Gould, William H. Cobb and A. G. Lyon.

BERKELEY SOCIETY

BERKELEY, March 13.—Mrs. Frederick J. Laird of College avenue was hostess at a happy combination of bridge party and afternoon tea at her home. The guests of honor were Mrs. August Machatow of Sausalito and daughter, Miss Gertrude Machatow. Bridge was the diversion.

Edgar Rickard of London, who arrived a week ago to visit his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Rickard will be here but one week longer. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar will entertain for him at dinner a few English friends. Mr. and Mrs. Harry East Miller will dine here at their home on Adams Point.

Mr. Edward Redfield, who has issued invitations for a St. Patrick's day bridge luncheon, to be given at her handsome Northgate home on Monday afternoon next. The various social functions will be a success, and the music of the day will be definitely original.

A delightful function was that of the elaborate luncheon given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moore, who entertained on Saturday last, to announce a double engagement.

The first was that of Miss Ethel Frances Rankin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rankin, of Vallejo, a prominent businessman of this city. The second was that of Miss Gladys Amber Wilson, sister of Leslie Wilson, daughter of Mr. A. F. Wilson, and Charles W. Foster, a noted graduate wok at the University of California.

BIDS FOR SIGNAL LIGHTS ARE SOUGHT

Alameda to Install Police Calls and New Telephone System.

ALAMEDA, March 13.—Bids for the installation of a police telephone and flashlight signal system are to be received by the electricity commission on or before March 27. The money to pay for the combined system was voted last summer in the combined bond propositions submitted to the people. There is considerable room for doubt of the amount voted, $800 being sufficient to cover the cost. The estimated $800 was first made several years ago when the project was broached in an effort to get an appropriation from the general fund.

Estimates were made then by installing electrical concerns of the cost. Since then prices of material and of the finished product are said to have materially advanced. The opinion was hazarded in the city hall this week that the bids would run nearer $10,000 than $800. Just what procedure will be taken in case the appropriation proves inadequate is not known.

While the apparatus is for the use of the police department the bids are to be submitted to the electricity commission as the proper department to pass on all municipal electrical matters. The flashlight signal and telephone proposition carried at the bond election by the narrowest of margins. It is also first believed that the proposal was beaten when the interpretation of the city attorney as to the actual vote on the proposition caused the city council to declare the measure carried.

At the same election the proposition to purchase an auto fire truck and other apparatus for the fire department lost by a small number of votes. A two-thirds majority was required to carry any and all of the three propositions voted upon. The bonds for the electricity building and light plant betterments carried easily.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR DELEGATESHIPS

ALAMEDA, March 13.—One of the greatest campaigns in the history of the local lodge of Eagles for the honor of attending as delegates to the State lodge, which will meet this year in Venice, is that to be conducted from now until April 2, when the election will be held. To date there are ten candidates in the field. These will come up for nomination at the meeting to be held on the evening of March 27. Those who are mentioned as contestants for the honor are Dave Wilson, Al Olson, James Bargone, T. L. Kumb, Leo Smith, W. Joseph H. Simpson, Edgar Ward, Cash Stickney and Kenny Richardson.

Tonight the members of the committee will attend a meeting in Oakland called for the purpose of securing a special train for Alameda county Eagles to the convention. It is the purpose to charter a train which will be draped with Alameda county banners, and Alameda literature will be distributed along the route. Three hundred Eagles from the county will be necessary to attend in order to secure the train, and it is thought there will be no difficulty in getting this number.

EIGHT OFFICERS WILL JOIN BATTLESHIPS

WASHINGTON, March 13.—For the purpose of making the work of the navy and army more effective when both branches of the military service are compelled to co-operate in time of war, eight officers have been detailed by the War Department to join the battleship fleet off the Virginia Capes this month when the fleet begins its regular annual battle practice. They will report on the fleet maneuvering. The officers follow: Colonel Charles L. Phillips, Majors Alston Hamilton, Percy M. Keeler and Frank K. Ferguson; Captains Clifford G. C. Corlett, Kenneth C. Maclester of the Coast Artillery; Captain James L. Walsh, ordnance department, and Lieutenant Clifford L. Corbin, Coast Artillery.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON OF THE ADELPHIAN CLUB

ALAMEDA, March 13.—The annual luncheon of the Adelphian Club was held this afternoon at the clubhouse. The luncheon was complimented by Mrs. Fred T. Moore, retiring president of the club, who has moved to Sacramento. Mrs. Moore came from Sacramento especially to be present at the luncheon and brought with her several Sacramento club women. Other special guests were the former Adelphian presidents. The receiving committee was composed of the members of the board of directors. The clubhouse was decorated in yellow blooms, typifying the club colors. The tables were dressed with daffodils, while acacia blooms and other yellow flowers completed the decorative scheme. An orchestra played during the luncheon and later a program of playlets and music was given.

MISS DORIS HADLEY, A CHARMING GIRL WHO IS IDENTIFIED WITH THE YOUNGER SET.—Webster Photo.

ONE of the prettiest of the society weddings of the season was celebrated in the Swedenborgian church in San Francisco last night when Miss Marjorie Stanton became the bride of Arnold Weber of Berkeley. Rev. Dr. Eldridge of Berkeley officiated at the service in place of Doctor Worcester, who was unable to be present.

The quaint little chapel carried out the garden idea in all its decorations, with a mass of verdure and flowers and glowing Chinese moon lanterns at the entrance. The soft light of candles was used inside the church, numerous artistic candelabra providing the illumination. Bruce Foster, one of the architects of the church, planned the unique decorative scheme.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white satin and lace, with a long veil to the end, and a shower of white orchids and lilles of the valley. She was unattended, and was followed up the aisle by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Stanton, her father giving her in marriage at the altar. Mrs. Stanton wore a handsome gown of gold-colored satin, with a drapery of gold lace and net, and carried a bouquet of sunset roses to harmonize with the rich tints of her gown.

Robert Rehn Weber, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were David Brattin of San Francisco, Wolcott Stanton, Archibald Tinning of Martinez, Edward Corbet, James Town and Noble Hamilton.

A reception at the Country Club followed the ceremony and was attended by about 300 guests, many of them going on afterward to the opera at the Tivoli. President Benjamin Ide Wheeler and Mrs. Wheeler and Mayor and Mrs. James Rolph Jr. were among some of the distinguished guests.

BRIDGE IN ALAMEDA.

Mrs. Dunn was hostess at an elaborate bridge party during the week at her home in Alameda, entertaining about thirty friends with an afternoon at cards and a pleasantly appointed tea.

CUPID IN AUTO; CHAUFFEUR IS BRIDEGROOM

Driver of Car Wins Daughter of Employer; Also Gets Fat New Job.

SAN RAFAEL, March 13.—A romance that started a year ago at the steering wheel terminated yesterday at the altar, when Miss Doris E. Thayer, daughter of a wealthy lumberman, became the bride of W. T. Chapelle, formerly her father's chauffeur.

Loved broke down the barriers between wealth and labor, tore away the opposition of family, and at the church C. H. Thayer, the millionaire, cheerfully entrusted the happiness of his beautiful daughter to the man who no longer since was associated in his mind with goggles and gasoline.

Chapelle was a persistent worker. As a demonstrator of the Standard Motor Car Company, he was employed to teach the society girl the intricacies of gears, carburetors, clutches and the like. In their drives he rode straight into the young lady's heart. He told his employer about it later and was directed to go out and make good.

Satisfied that he was to be taken on his merit, he set out to make a showing that would make him worthy of the hand of his employer's daughter. He redoubled his energy in the sale of automobiles, bought an interest in a ranch and gave personal attention to its cultivation.

Mr. Thayer approved his persistence, liked his pluck and sanctioned the increasing visits to his beautiful home. He made him superintendent of his ranch at Willits, and gave him a salary that befit the woe of his daughter.

Yesterday Rev. Lynn White united the two in matrimony. Miss Nora Thayer, the bride's sister, attended her. Thayer gave away the bride. They will make their home on the ranch at Willits.

Women Suicide

LONDON, March 13.—Mrs. Louisa Jeffries and Natalie Jeffries, the wife and daughter of Dr. Wyman Jeffries, a Scotchman, who served some time as an ambulance driver in the American civil war, committed suicide in a pond near Godalming, Surrey.

Doctor Jeffries, when he identified the bodies today, said he served a long time in the United States army and fought in the Civil War.

He declared that his wife suffered from hallucinations and that his daughter was overwrought by constant attendance on her.

Denied Respite

NEW YORK, March 13.—The privileges of maternity can not be claimed by a New York public school teacher, the board of education decided last night in denying the application of Mrs. Katherine C. Edgell for a year's leave of absence to bear child.

Mrs. Edgell's case, which has been pending before the educational powers of the city for several weeks, enlisted the sympathy of only five members of the board, when it came to a final test last night. Of these, two were women—one a matron, one a spinster. Thirty-two members declared themselves by their votes unable to help this married woman high school teacher solve the problem of making the duties of a school mistress not entirely incompatible with those of a housewife and mother.

By a vote of 23 to 9 the board voted beforehand not even to allow the question to be debated.

A suspension of the bylaws was necessary to have granted Mrs. Edgell's application. For purpose of study or restoration of health, a teacher may appear for absence without pay. Rearing children is a topic not mentioned in the bylaws, declared those who recognized the force of Mrs. Edgell's appeal.

The high schools committee considered the teacher's request last week and adopted a resolution favoring it.

Have Four Gaits

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 12.—There are four gaits for women, so far as walking is concerned, according to Dr. Dudley A. Samson, physical director at Harvard.

Three of these gaits are good, but some are better than others.

First, there is the Indian, or cross country gait, used by the redskin in the hunting pilgrimages. The hip is thrown forward and the whole foot comes down on the ground. This is the real gait for long distances.

Second, comes the heel and toe step, also good for long distances. It is the German army gait.

Then comes the French army step, which Doctor Sargent describes as a sort of shuffle that is almost a run, so that it is hard to determine where walking leaves off and running begins.

Last is the so-called "socisty walk," otherwise known as the "bobble skirt gait," in which a woman steps on the safest part of her foot and walks quickly.

BURGLAR'S GIFTS CHARMED WOMEN

MRS. CLARKSON BEGS CONN FOR AID

Minister's Wife Writes Pathetic Letter From Milwaukee to Housebreaker.

Mrs. Kate Pope Identified as Sister of Prominent Automobile Man.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The fact that Owen D. Conn deserted Mrs. Mabel Clarkson, the wife of the Chicago clergymen, on January 15, and that she is now in Milwaukee, was proved beyond question today when a wounded burglar, who is in a serious condition at the City and County Hospital, turned over a letter from her to the police. In this letter the woman begs for funds and implores Conn to let her join him no matter where he may be.

Detective Sergeant Proll declared today that while he did not believe Conn would succumb to his injury, nevertheless his condition was extremely dangerous and that at any time blood poisoning might set in with dire consequences. The bullet shattered the thigh bone in the leg of the burglar, and there is some infection in the wound.

GAVE PRESENTS GALORE.

The relations of Conn with a number of young girls to whom he paid attention while engaged in robbing right and left and his humorous way of bestowing presents upon them, have also been disclosed. It was his custom to take young women whom he met on joy rides. He would finally insist upon buying them a necklace or a watch or some other piece of jewelry and would ostentatiously stop before one of the large retail jewelers shown in his machine. Going inside, he would return with the proudest pride his scheme was to leave in the forwarding department of the house one of the articles taken in his robbery and would have elaborately scolded thereon "From Owen to Grace," or whatever the name of the fair charmer might be. A number of instances of this sort have been revealed since the man's arrest.

PATHETIC LETTER.

Mrs. Clarkson went under the name of Mabel Ott and she was abandoned by Conn after she had left Chicago with him. The couple went to Omaha, where they separated, he telling her that he was going to Milwaukee. She followed him there but he had double crossed her and she could not find him. The letter written by her is dated March 6 and reads, in part:

"My Dear Owen: I am in Milwaukee in destitute circumstances and I have been under the doctor's care. I owe the doctor money. My last week's room rent is due and less you do something for me I do not know what will become of me here. I always tried to treat you right. I will join you in San Francisco, or anywhere, in the world if you will only send my money."

MRS. POPE KNOWN.

Mrs. Kate Pope, the woman companion of Conn, for whom the police of San Francisco have been searching the city for the last few days, left San Francisco on February 27, bound for her home in Detroit, Michigan, according to the latest reports of the police. She is the sister of Lucius E. Wilson, president of the Warren Motor Car company of Detroit and a member of the Detroit Board of Trade, according to the stories told by two inmates acquaintances who knew Mrs. Pope during her sojourn in San Francisco.

The police have learned that not only is Mrs. Pope of a good family, but she herself at one time stood high in society, and was socially connected with the very best people. The story of her downward course to the place where her path crossed that of the gentleman burglar, and the chapter in her life as his companion and paramour, were revealed by Mrs. John Downie, wife of the proprietor of the Panama hotel, and Miss Sullivan, a clerk at Hale's, and Conn himself, who is still lying at the hospital with a shattered leg, the result of his meeting with Mrs. T. P. Sherman last Saturday afternoon shortly after he had robbed her home.

That Mrs. Pope has gone east with a trunkful of the swag which Conn stole during his many burglaries about the bay cities, as has been alleged by the police, is not known, but the stories told of Mr. Conn himself declare he merely met the woman here, lived with her a short time and finally left her because he feared she might get him into trouble with the police. Later she found him again, he says, and learned that he was "crooked," but he denies that she had anything to do with his business affairs, or that she was made the custodian of any of his swag.

CONN TALKS FREELY.

Conn talks freely of his burglaries, his affairs with the various women with whom he has been in liaisons, and his career in general. There appears to have been nothing unusual about the man, other than that he had an unmitigated nerve, worked altogether by day and night, and had a way with the women. He was liberal with his money, had plenty of it, lived in the best hotels wherever he happened to be and was fond of night life in the tenderloin. Thus he met the various young women whose names have been drawn into this case here through his confessions.

Conn now appears to be stricken with considerable remorse for various things and people, and is helping the police to restore as much of the loot as he still had in cache, and also is aiding in locating some that was pawned by him.

"HOUSEWORK IS NOBLEST" IS HIS JUDICIAL DICTUM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—"Housework is the noblest work woman can perform," said Superior Judge Graham today in granting a divorce to Blessing Irwin from Frank W. Irwin of 2517 California street. Mrs. Irwin said her spouse had deserted her, and when asked what she was doing, replied that she was not employed. Further inquiry brought out the fact that she did all the housework for her father-in-law and this in turn caused her to come in for the commandment of the court.

McAllister Shows Himself Wonderful Boxer Against Meehan, Hickey Beaten and Miller Knocked Out in Card of Surprises

M'ALLISTER WILL DO, IS GENERAL VERDICT

Apparently Lacks Knockout Punch, but Has Everything Else

(by THE TIMEKEEPER.)

Bob McAllister, former Olympic Club champion, got well launched on his professional career last night when he won the decision over Willie Meehan at the Oakland Wheelmen's Club. McAllister clearly outboxed Meehan and scored one knockdown in the opening round. He only smiled at Meehan's wild rushes and they did not seem to have much effect on him. McAllister showed a cleverness that was surprising. He is cool and collected at all times and his punches were well-timed. Only once during the 10 rounds did he miss a punch, and while they did not carry the knockout with them, they demonstrated just what his chief exponent, James J. Corbett, said about him: He looks like a comer, but needs some experience yet.

Meehan made a rushing fight with the amateur champion, probably bent on scaring him or putting him at a disadvantage. He was unsuccessful in either. McAllister never lost his head and met Willie's rushes without flinching. He parried many of the Meehan left-hand onslaughts and they did little damage.

Victory Is Valuable

It was a relief that McAllister will long remember. He had been awarded probably higher than any other fighter in his first professional debut and the fans were skeptical how he would take the one-sought of a boy in the Meehan type. His victory will go a long way in helping him to climb up the top of the pugilistic ladder. While he lacks the fitness of the finished ringman, these will come with time. He possesses two exceptions: ring quickness—coming and closing fast. McAllister is one of the few best middleweight for one of his biggest men on his feet in the ring and he gives the impression of being able to take punishment. Anyone fighting with Willie Meehan is going to take a few punches. McAllister seems to be the sometime and somewhere. His blows last night did not seem to bother the Olympic star in the least. In fact, he came out of two bad mixups with Meehan, in which the star stood back and punched with a smile on his lips. He displayed a willingness to mix at all times and an ability to get away from a damaging punch. McAllister seems to be holding his own in the ring and due to the fact that he is inexperienced in how to get the most out of his blows and this may come with time.

Shows Versatility

He changed his style of fighting often. In some of the rounds he stood off and outboxed Meehan, always landing almost at will. Again, he adopted a style of standing up and slugging head to head, and at other times depended on his footwork to carry him out of the way of Meehan's rushes, making Willie miss repeatedly. In another round he allowed Meehan to land eight straight lefts to his face without getting a blow, but the star was caught with him going away and were harmless.

McAllister's main effort is a straight left, which he used to good advantage. He crossed with his right several times but used his dominant left solely on his left. He used both rights and lefts to the face, but they barely slowed the rushing Willie. Meehan tried a couple of lefts to face and body, but McAllister sidestepped and put his left to Meehan's side. He jabbed Meehan with a left full on the nose.

Round 2—Meehan rushed across the ring and swung a vicious left at McAllister's head, but the Olympic star sidestepped the blow and countered with another right swing to the point of the jaw that sent Meehan to the mat for a count of three. McAllister rained rights and lefts to the face. Meehan landed a couple of rights and righted himself and landed another left to the face. They exchanged rights and lefts to the face at the bell.

Round 3—They came to the center of the ring and exchanged rights and lefts to the face and exchanged rights and lefts to the face. McAllister followed up with another right swing to the point of the jaw that sent Meehan to the mat for a count of three. McAllister rained rights and lefts to the face. Meehan landed a couple of rights and righted himself and landed another left to the face. They exchanged rights and lefts to the face at the bell.

Round 4—They came to the center of the ring and exchanged rights and lefts to the face and exchanged rights and lefts to the face. McAllister followed up with another right swing to the point of the jaw that sent Meehan to the mat for a count of three. McAllister rained rights and lefts to the face. Meehan landed a couple of rights and righted himself and landed another left to the face. They exchanged rights and lefts to the face at the bell.

Round 5—Meehan rushed across the ring and put a left swing to McAllister's stomach. This was the best blow he had given. McAllister jabbed Meehan with lefts to the face, but they barely slowed the rushing Willie. Meehan tried a couple of lefts to face and body, but McAllister sidestepped and put his left to Meehan's side. He jabbed Meehan with a left full on the nose.

Round 8—Meehan adopted a different style and rushed McAllister with rights and lefts to the face. McAllister responded with rights and lefts to the face and neither appeared to be doing very much damage. Meehan made a rushing left swing to McAllister's body and another to the face, but they were hacking and the two had little effect. McAllister put a fusillade of rights and lefts to Meehan's face and worked him to the ropes.

Round 9—Meehan tried "kiddies" McAllister, but he had little effect at "kiddies" him. "Hit me in the eye, Bob," he said. "Now on the nose." McAllister accommodated him with each request and continued to jab Meehan with lefts and rights. McAllister's right was open, but McAllister did not follow up and waited until he came out with a left swing meeting him with a left face.

Round 10—The greater part of the round was taken up by a body search, neither man landing very many effective blows. McAllister put several lefts and rights to the face and Meehan landed several left punches to the body.

Round 11—McAllister jabbed Meehan and landed eight lefts to the body, all of them with Bob bucking away and without damage, and McAllister came back with left jabs to the face and sent several right jabs to the body. They stood in the middle of the ring and slugged head to head for several seconds.

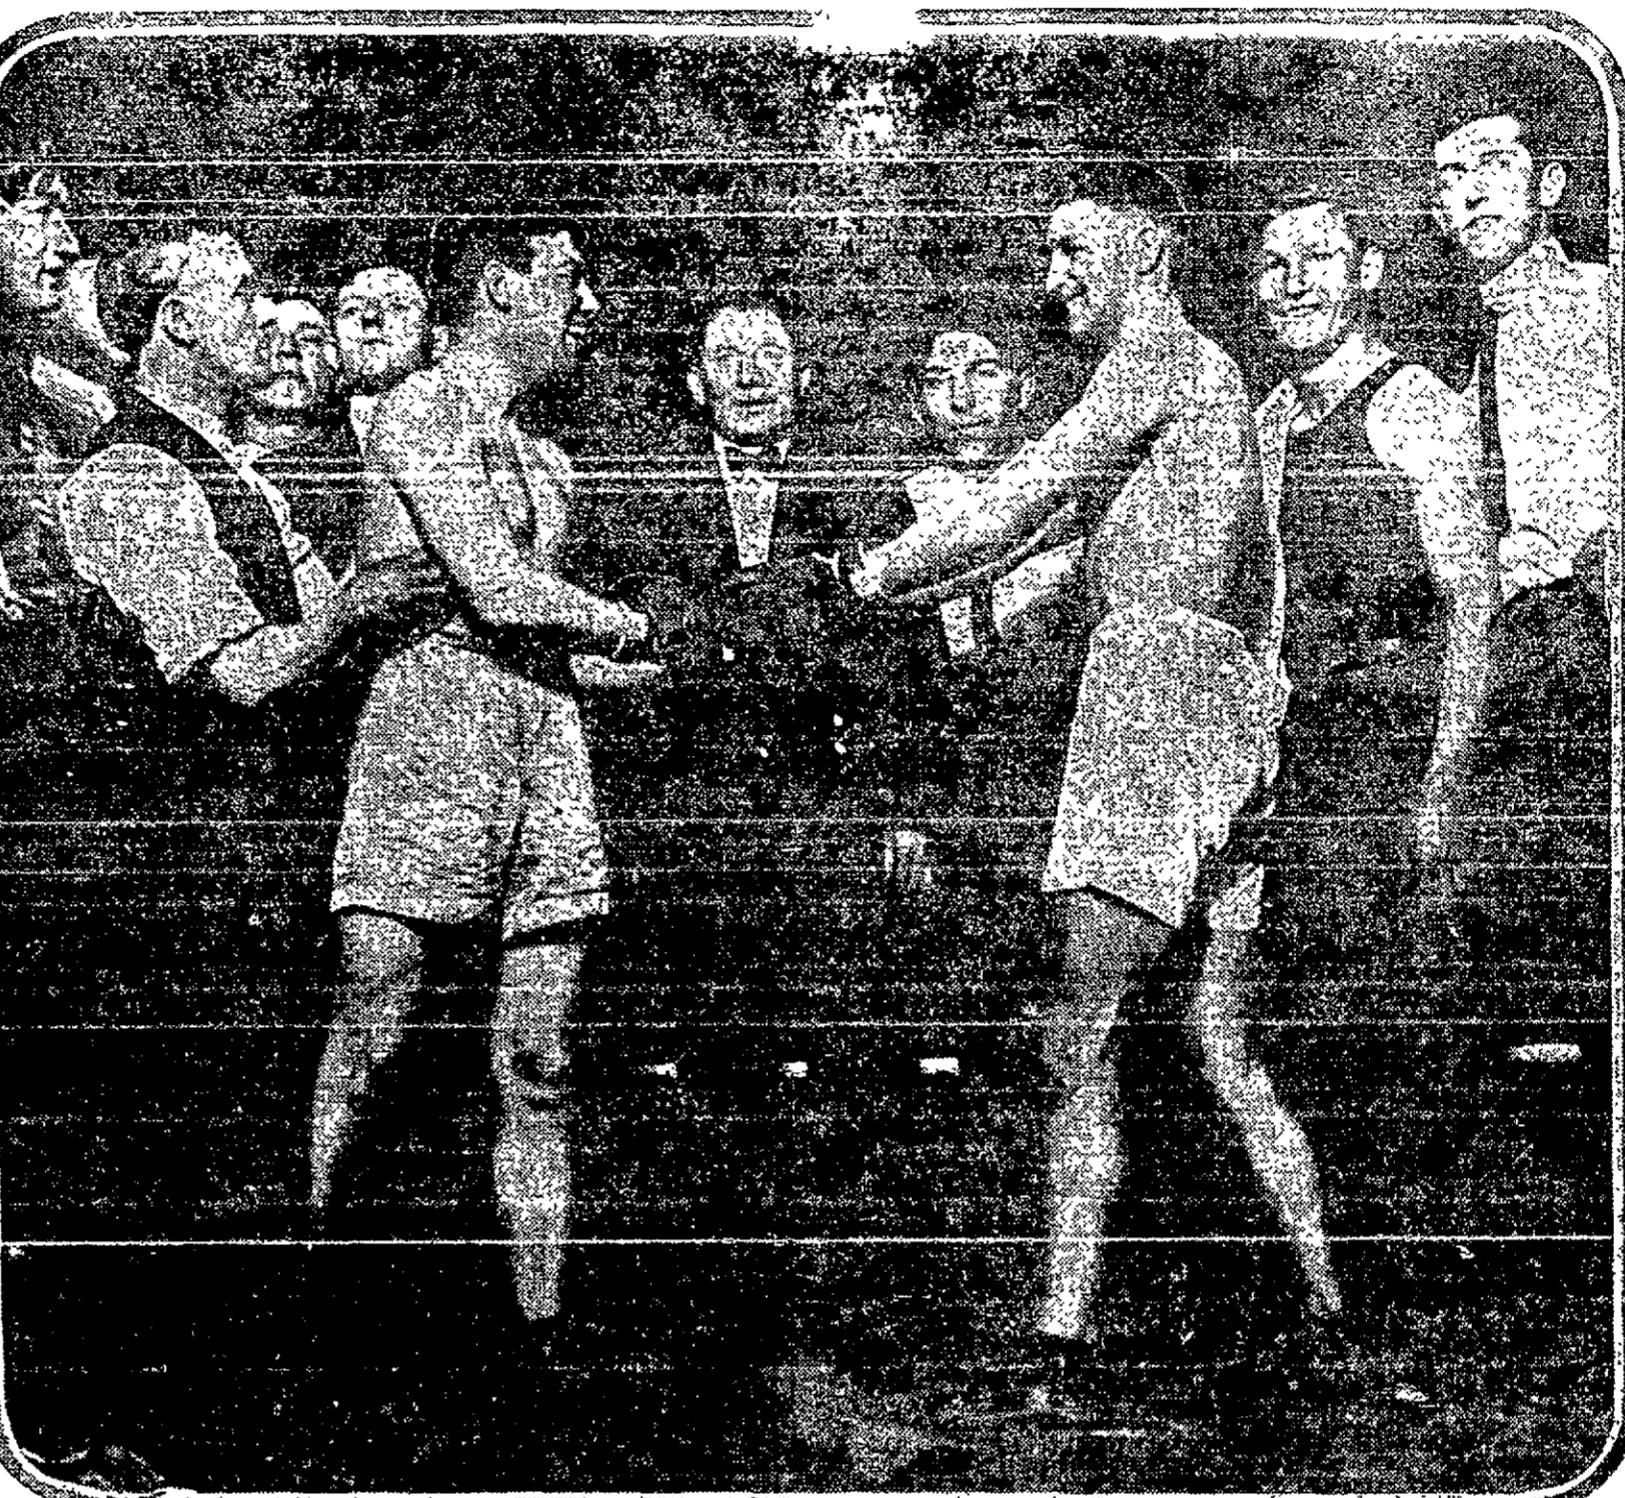

Round 12—This round was very much as the ninth round. As they stood in the middle of the ring and slugged punches to the body, head to head with an equally little effect, and at bell McAllister was jabbing away at Willie's face with his straight left.

Before the fight ended, raised McAllister's hand in token of victory, and Meehan embraced the Olympic star before he left the ring in token of victory. Life insurance writers take notice.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Round 1—Meehan made a rush across the ring and swung a vicious left at McAllister's head, but the Olympic star sidestepped this and countered with another right swing to the point of the jaw that sent Meehan to the mat for a count of three. McAllister rained rights and lefts to the face. Meehan landed a couple of rights and righted himself and landed another left to the face. They exchanged rights and lefts to the face at the bell.

Round 2—They came to the center of the ring and exchanged rights and lefts to the face and exchanged rights and lefts to the face. Marquard will leave the vaudeville stage within two weeks for the diamond at Mineola, Tex., where the 1913 baseball season opens July 4.

If Bomber Wells can get by Gunner Smith he will be offered a bout with Luther McCarty at Vernon on July 4.

Tom O'Rourke, manager of Al Palmer, writes that while in England he visited his old friend Charlie Mitchell, former champion of that country and by the way, the best heavyweight ever turned out of England, who is dying from liver disease and is not expected to live a month longer.

One of the biggest track meets ever held in Fresno will be that attraction at the county fair grounds, which opens from the coming Saturday, when cinderpath athletes from Conflingo, Easton, Selma, Fowler and Fresno meet for the annual spring trials. The meet is under the management of J. W. Warner, athletic director of the local high school.

Nick Williams, manager of the Portland Cascades, expects to hold down first base himself again this year. Nick is not a native of the city, but he has been here since 1909, when he was a member of the Kincade team. Marquard would wind up their theatrical engagement Saturday evening and leave for Texas the next day, but the big pitcher wants to play at the local Orpheum at Los Angeles before joining his team mates.

DIAMOND DUST

Well, Hogan has landed another of his 1912 near champs into the Venice Hall of Fame, Bayless being the latest addition. Hogan is a good player, but he is not a great player, and he had to attend to some business. It appears that L. L. Dickie runs a billiard emporium in Joplin, Mo., and Dick likes to get away from his skele getter. Dick looks to be in fine form.

Harry Wolverton assigned "Holy Cow" to the job of umpiring one of the Harry-Yannigan contests at Marysville last week and Peter is still alive. They are the best of friends and Peter is a good player. He is a good player and when it comes to being an indicator man and when he gets tired of the usual monotony of life he can enter this business. Life insurance writers take notice.

Intercollegiate baseball will take place this week at Stanford. Juniors and sophomores vs. freshmen are to be in the first two games and the winners will clash Friday afternoon in a deciding contest. Valley State men are to play the one-round robin meet by the only one remaining, while the varsity pitchers and catchers must play in some other positions than their own.

Low Powell will essay his "come back" for the four-round game tomorrow night at Pavilion Rink, in San Francisco, when he meets Frankie Smith in the main event of the Hawthorne club's four-round card. If Powell makes good here he may be heard of again among the four-rounders. Smith is a tough boy and made a good showing against Willie Hoppe and Red Watson and others.

Jack White, the Chicago boy who holds a win over Owen Moran and Joe Rivers, will be in the other main event with Johnny O'Leary, the champion of the Northwest. There are seven other events on the bill.

COUNTRY REAL ESTATE

CALIFORNIA'S most wonderful reclamation project is now under way. It is 11,500 acres of river sediment soil.

WEST SACRAMENTO, 15 miles from California's capital.

Three years of development work and $2,000,000 have created a new empire across the river. The first division of Sacramento. For a vast tract of land has been reclaimed from the waters of the Sacramento river and transformed into a suburban agricultural subdivision—a district which combines all the freedom of rural life with the conveniences of the city. Four systems of electric railways, 50 miles of macadamized roads, 30 miles of re-enforced concrete boulevards, 3000 feet of wharves and warehouses on the river front, a free market, a pleasure park—their are a few of the many improvements already under way in West Sacramento.

So extraordinary are the features here—so numerous the advantages that, measured from any point of view it outclasses anything of its kind in the West. This land is selling at its lowest price now.

It is too momentous a project for you to let go by without investigation. The information we will send you for the asking will be surprisingly helpful if you are interested in getting the most out of the soil. Write us now while you have it in mind.

WEST SACRAMENTO CO., Fred T. Moore, Mgr., Land Sales Dept., 208 Nicolaus Bldg., 5th and K sts., Sacramento, Cal.

'MISSING GIRL' IS WEAKER GABLES BRIDE OF ANOTHER

WEAKER GABLES INFLUENCE GRAIN

Laura Trathen Jilts Oaklander to Wed Nevada Suitor.

While wires were being kept hot by messages between the parents of Laura Trathen in Virginia City, Nev., and Edwin Bishop, her fiancé in Oakland, concerning the strange disappearance of the girl while on her way to Oakland, Miss. Trathen herself was speeding away with her lover, Joseph Duborgos, in search of a minister to marry them. W. H. Trathen, father of the girl, discovered his daughter last night in Mason, Nev., but the marriage had already been solemnized. He notified the forsaken Bishop in Oakland.

About two years ago Duborgos, a young business man of Virginia City, became infatuated with Miss Trathen, daughter of Nevada pioneer Bishop, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bishop, 5532 Adeline street, Oakland, had been considered as the intended fiance of the girl as the two had a boy and girl love affair when the Bishops lived near the Trathens at Virginia City. The parents of the girl approved of young Bishop and discouraged the attentions of Duborgos.

It was believed that the girl joined with her parents in this, and last October her engagement to young Bishop was announced by the parents. The wedding was set for next June.

The girl announced her intention of visiting the Bishops in Oakland and left her home last Saturday. She failed to arrive in Oakland, and the police of the bay cities were notified. It was thought the girl might have been abducted.

Bishop received word last night that the marriage had taken place. It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Duborgos have asked for the parental blessing.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Weaker cables than expected had a bearish influence today on wheat. Favorable weather conditions in the American winter crop belt also aided the bears. Buying was only of the scattered sort. Openings were a shade to 3¢ lower. May started at 80¢ to 80¢ 1/2, a loss of 3¢ to 3¢ 1/2, and fell to 79¢.

Further weakness developed because of selling at higher prices. The close, however, was steady, with May 14¢ net lower at 78¢.

Although offerings of oats were not small, the provision pit by selling in the part of long grain, sales ranged from 22¢ to lower.

The 10-cent advance in May at 80¢ to 80¢ 1/2, for 100 bushels, was due to the fact that the Bids were 10¢ higher.

Lightness of hog feeders was largely offset by the provision pit by selling in the part of long grain, sales ranged from 22¢ to lower.

The 10-cent advance in May at 80¢ to 80¢ 1/2, for 100 bushels, was due to the fact that the Bids were 10¢ higher.

WIFE OF PHYSICIAN SUES FOR DIVORCE

Dr. Smith McMullin of Berkeley was made the defendant in a divorce suit filed by his wife, Laura Q. Wilson McMullin, today. The plaintiff recites a long tale of alleged cruelties on the part of her husband. The couple were married February 18, 1912, and on March 1, following, Mrs. McMullin says that her husband returned home in a quarrelsome mood and said to her: "I have fixed everything and have purchased my ticket and am going far away. I have made a mistake in marrying you and now I am going to leave you forever."

He did not go away at that time, but from that on, he abused her in different ways, she alleges, by nagging, quarreling and cursing at her.

NEW ENGLANDERS TO HOLD SESSION TONIGHT

A social and business meeting of the New England Association will be held tonight at Start King hall, Fourteenth and Castro streets. A large attendance has been prepared for and a general successful session is anticipated.

SAYS HUBBY WAS CRUEL

Upon testimony that her husband had mistreated her within three days after their wedding in Springfield, Mass., in 1910, Richmond H. Langley was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from George W. H. Langley, trial by Superior Judge J. Wells. Plaintiff declared that her husband frequently slapped her and blackened her eyes for trivial reasons.

BUSINESS WORRY CAUSE OF DEATH

Former President of Stockton Gas Company Cerbral Hemorrhage Victim.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Henry D. Adams, formerly president of the Stockton Gas and Electric company, was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage yesterday while leaving his hotel to attend a hearing of the railroad commission and died here in a hospital late last night. He was 49 years old.

The Stockton Gas and Electric company was taken over by the Western States Gas and Electric, which has been opposing the application of the Oro Electrical corporation to enter the same field, and this matter was before the commission at the hearing which Adams purposed to attend, and in which he was deeply interested.

HELD ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT WITH WEAPON

A. C. Anderson, arrested two weeks ago on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, was held to answer before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning, his bond being fixed in the sum of $1000 for his appearance before the Superior Court for trial. In a neighborhood quarrel among residents of Eighty-seventh avenue, Anderson is alleged to have discharged a revolver several times in the air, and is said to have threatened H. L. Spear, a neighbor. Spear was the complaining witness.

MAXIMUM PREVAILS.

The deed of gift of the America's cup allows competing vessels of any length from sixty-five feet to ninety feet, and the maximum length has always prevailed. It was proposed to reduce this to a seventy-five foot limit under the terms of the challenge was held by the New York Club to be contrary to the spirit of the deed of gift. The vote in relection of Lipton's terms was given as "unanimous," but this means unanimity of only forty out of the 300 members of the club who attended last night's meeting. The forty members however, were all that were privileged to vote as the balloting was confined to the actual boat owning members present. Among other members there was some protest against the alleged arbitrary action of the club. Evans R. Martin, a member of the club who expressed such protest, declared that the motion to reject the challenge was "railroaded" through the meeting.

LIPTON SURPRISED.

LONDON, March 13.—Sir Thomas Lipton, challenger for the America's cup, expressed the greatest surprise this morning when informed that the New York Yacht Club had declined his challenge because it did not comply with the conditions of the deed of gift. Neither Sir Thomas nor the Doyal Ulster Yacht Club has yet been officially notified of the rejection of the challenge.

Sir Thomas said he had not had time to consider whether he would amend the conditions of his challenge so as to meet the objections of the New York yachtsmen. He expected however, to confer with his designer Nicholson of Gosport on the subject immediately. Sir Thomas, of course, fully recognizes the right of the New York Yacht Club to decline his challenge because of the stipulation that the defending yacht must be of the same size as the challenger.

The chairman of the new committee on skating for the bay year San Rafael has floated into the busy social circles of this city a most unusual story, wherein a jealous wife took revenge upon her rival by pitching her headlong into the bay from the deck of the ark "La Tosca" and then added further ignominy upon this hated rival's head by throwing her clothing after her. The story has interested the police of this city, and the full details of the affair, which took place in the night, have slowly but inevitably been beached by the swirls and eddies upon the social shores of San Rafael.

As the police told the story, the wife of one of the men aboard the ark learned that her husband was spending his time in the company of another woman. The wife determined to find out the facts for herself, and she managed to board the ark.

Instantly she satisfied herself that there were grounds for her suspicion against the woman, and she engaged her in combat.

For two or three minutes there was a tense struggle on the deck of the ark and hairpins, ribbons and all the other things that women adorn themselves with were littered on the deck.

Finally a woman's arms were seen to hold tight around the form of a woman.

A shout in the water ended the struggle, and the form of the woman thrown overboard was seen struggling against the incoming tide.

"Give you all your clothes," shouted the triumphant wife on the deck, "but you'll have to dress where you are."

Putting her action to her promise, she began pitching overboard the articles of dress that had been worn by the woman in the water.

The damp garments were hastily collected by the distressed fair one and she gathered them in her arms and beat a hasty retreat to the shore. There she got into her clothes and left the vicinity of the ark, a sadder but wiser woman.

The "La Tosca" is owned by O'Brien Brothers of San Francisco, who had leased it to a man named Burns, a San Francisco insurance man. When the steamer reached the dock of the owners of the ark they forthwith declared they would cancel the lease and from the appearance of the ark yesterday it was evident that a change in tenants had taken place. But Burns, the insurance man, could not be found.

LIPTON YACHT CHALLENGE FUTILE

Restriction of Length of Vessel Causes N. Y. Club to Decline.

Another British Challenger Is Expected to Appear; "Railroading" Charged.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Intimation that a challenge from some other English yachtsman than Sir Thomas Lipton for the America's cup is anticipated by members of the New York Yacht Club caused considerable speculation in yachting circles today, but there was no answer to the question who the prospective challenger might be. The rumors of another challenge were coincident with the decision which the New York Yacht Club reached late last night to decline the Lipton challenge which was made in its behalf by the Royal Ulster Yacht Club.

It came as a surprise to many members of the club when they read the challenge for the first time last night to find that Sir Thomas not only proposed a challenging vessel not to exceed seventy-five feet on the water line, but that he would require the defender to be of the same dimensions. In gossip of the terms of the challenge it had been intimated that Sir Thomas made no conditions as to the defender except that if in excess of the seventy-five foot length the usual time allowance should be figured.

MAXIMUM PREVAILS.

The deed of gift of the America's cup allows competing vessels of any length from sixty-five feet to ninety feet, and the maximum length has always prevailed. It was proposed to reduce this to a seventy-five foot limit under the terms of the challenge was held by the New York Club to be contrary to the spirit of the deed of gift. The vote in relection of Lipton's terms was given as "unanimous," but this means unanimity of only forty out of the 300 members of the club who attended last night's meeting. The forty members however, were all that were privileged to vote as the balloting was confined to the actual boat owning members present. Among other members there was some protest against the alleged arbitrary action of the club. Evans R. Martin, a member of the club who expressed such protest, declared that the motion to reject the challenge was "railroaded" through the meeting.

LIPTON SURPRISED.

LONDON, March 13.—Sir Thomas Lipton, challenger for the America's cup, expressed the greatest surprise this morning when informed that the New York Yacht Club had declined his challenge because it did not comply with the conditions of the deed of gift. Neither Sir Thomas nor the Doyal Ulster Yacht Club has yet been officially notified of the rejection of the challenge.

Sir Thomas said he had not had time to consider whether he would amend the conditions of his challenge so as to meet the objections of the New York yachtsmen. He expected however, to confer with his designer Nicholson of Gosport on the subject immediately. Sir Thomas, of course, fully recognizes the right of the New York Yacht Club to decline his challenge because of the stipulation that the defending yacht must be of the same size as the challenger.

JEALOUS WOMAN OBTAINS REVENGE

Throws Rival Off Ark Into the Water; Clothes Follow Her.

SAN RAFAEL, March 13.—Out of the cold dark water were the bay year San Rafael has floated into the busy social circles of this city a most unusual story, wherein a jealous wife took revenge upon her rival by pitching her headlong into the bay from the deck of the ark "La Tosca" and then added further ignominy upon this hated rival's head by throwing her clothing after her. The story has interested the police of this city, and the full details of the affair, which took place in the night, have slowly but inevitably been beached by the swirls and eddies upon the social shores of San Rafael.

As the police told the story, the wife of one of the men aboard the ark learned that her husband was spending his time in the company of another woman. The wife determined to find out the facts for herself, and she managed to board the ark.

Instantly she satisfied herself that there were grounds for her suspicion against the woman, and she engaged her in combat.

BIGAMIST KILLS SELF AND WOMAN

Russian Murderer Ends Long Career of Love Trouble With Revolver.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Within a few short hours after indications charging bigamy had been returned against him, William J. Sosin, who for several months has been in trouble with the police, killed himself and his first wife in a rooming house at 304 Valencia street. Coincident with the double tragedy, the fact was revealed that Sosin left his native country, Russia, because he had killed a man six years ago. It was as a direct result of his first crime that he faced the law and decided on death. It seems quite evident, after the finding of the two bodies in bed in the looking house, that Sosin and his wife had entered into a suicide pact.

"Please don't blame anyone. This is a case of love," read one of the notes on the table.

Two shots attracted occupants of the hotel shortly after Sosin and Mrs. Vera Sosin had registered there and after the man had telephoned twice from the office. Eighteen months ago Sosin's first wife, Anna, died in this city. She was told that he had wedded a mere slip of a girl. She laid her curse before the district attorney with the result that an indictment was presented to Judge Dunne. Sosin was originally arrested for running a blind pig at his grocery store on Rhode Island street. It took four policemen to overpower and arrest him and subsequently he accused the officers ofounding him and brought charges against one of them before the police commission.

He is survived by his 19-year-old wife number two, who speaks no English and who has a 16-months old baby. Sosin's first wife was married again also and is survived by her husband, Menoff, a machinist of 17 De Haro street.

CLARKE RULES OVER SENATE

Arkansan Is Elected President Pro Tem and Is Sworn In.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Senator James P. Clarke of Arkansas, Democrat, was elected today president pro tempore of the Senate. Senator Clarke received 41 votes. Senator Gallinger, Republican, 18, and Senators Clapp and Bristol and Borth 1 each.

Senator Clarke was immediately sworn in and presided over the Senate during the election of other officers for the new congress. Vice-President Marshall retired from the chamber while the Senate chose its officials.

Senator Bristol voted for Senator Clapp and Senator Clapp voted for Senator Borth. The only vote for Senator Borth was cast by Senator La Follette.

Speculation still existed today as to a number of the most important chairmanships. The bitter personal fight made by Senator Tillman for chairmanhip of the appropriations committee left that position in doubt, although it was believed Senator Martin would be the choice of the "steering committee."

The question will go before the Democratic caucus in that event with the certainty that Senator Tillman will renew his fight there.

Senator Martin is in line for the chairmanship of the commerce committee, but should he be given the other, it is understood Senator Clarke of Arkansas may take the commerce chairmanship.

The naval affairs committee, to which Senator Tillman would be assigned if not given the appropriation committee, would otherwise fall to Senator Smith of Maryland.

The chairmanship of the new committee on skating for the bay year San Rafael has floated into the busy social circles of this city a most unusual story, wherein a jealous wife took revenge upon her rival by pitching her headlong into the bay from the deck of the ark "La Tosca" and then added further ignominy upon this hated rival's head by throwing her clothing after her.
